

Trials of Jesus

☼ Jesus was tried before:

- Annas (Jn.18:19)
- Caiaphas and the Sanhedrin (Mt. 26:57)
- Pilate (Lk. 23:1)
- King Herod (Lk. 23:7)
- Pilate (Jn. 18:28)

At none of these trials could any evidence be found against Jesus. Jesus died of the cross not guilty of any crime or sin.

concealment and usually centering around the sexual processes while common to both sexes is more peculiarly feminine so that it may almost be regarded as the chief secondary sexual character of women on the psychical side The woman who is lacking in this kind of fear is lacking also in sexual attractiveness to the normal and average man The apparent exceptions seem to prove the rule for it will generally be found that the women who are not immodest for immodesty is more closely related to modesty than mere negative absence of the sense of modesty but without that fear which implies the presence of a complex emotional feminine organization to defend only make a strong sexual appeal to men who are themselves lacking in the complementary masculine qualities As a psychical secondary sexual character of the first rank it is necessary before any psychology of sex can be arranged in order to obtain a clear view of modesty The immense importance of feminine modesty in creating masculine passion must be fairly obvious I may however quote the observations of two writers who have shown evidence of insight and knowledge regarding this matter Casanova describes how when at Berne he went to the baths and was according to custom attended by a young girl whom he selected from a group of bath attendants She undressed him proceeded to undress herself and then entered the bath with him and rubbed him thoroughly all over the operation being performed in the most serious manner and without a word being spoken When all was over however he perceived that the girl had expected him to make advances and he proceeds to describe and discuss his own feelings of indifference under such circumstances Though without gazing on the girl s figure I had seen enough to recognize that she had all that a man can desire to find in a woman a beautiful face lively and well formed eyes a beautiful mouth with good teeth a healthy complexion well developed breasts and everything in harmony It is true that I had felt that her hands could have been smoother but I could only attribute this to hard work moreover my Swiss girl was only eighteen and yet I remained entirely cold What was the cause of this That was the question that I asked myself     *Studies in English prose: specimens, with notes, by J.
