Translation and Stylistic Variation Helen Gibson, 2023-09-01 Translation and Stylistic Variation Dialect and Heteroglossia in Northern Irish Poetic Translation considers the ways in which translators use stylistic variation analysing the works of three Northern Irish poet translators to look at how in this variety the translation process becomes a creative act by which translators can explore their own linguistic and cultural heritage The volume offers a holistic portrait of the use of linguistic variety dialect and heteroglossia in the literary translations of Seamus Heaney Ciaran Carson and Tom Paulin shedding light on the translators choices but also readers experiences of them Drawing on work from cognitive stylistics Gibson reflects on how and why translators choose to add linguistic variety and how these choices can often be traced back to their socio cultural context The book not only extends existing scholarship on Irish English literary translation to examine issues unique to Northern Ireland but also raises broader questions about translation in locations where language choice is fraught and political The volume makes the case for giving increased consideration to the role of the individual translator both for insights into personal choices and a more nuanced understanding of contemporary literary translation practices in

Schaffner, S. Weller, 2012-09-27 This volume explores the impact of sexological and early psychoanalytic conceptions of sexual perversion on the representation of the erotic in the work of a range of major European modernists including Joyce Kafka Lawrence Mann Proust and Rilke as well as in that of some less well known figures of the period such as Dujardin and Jahn Sappho and Catullus in Twentieth-Century Italian and North American Poetry Cecilia Piantanida, 2022-08-25 Introduction the slow fire Mythical rewritings Modernist rites Classical hermeticism The self and object Body vs soul Postmodern Sappho and Catullus Epilogue The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 This guide highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Hungarian Korean to Turkish For some works e g Virgil s Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available Vulnerability and Resilience in English Literature of the Long 19th Century Raffaella

Antinucci, Adrian Grafe, 2024-11-14 The nineteenth century was a time of accelerated change and stark contradictions It was marked by stability advancement and reform but also by widening inequalities spiritual crisis and social unrest Identity and gender came under pressure religious belief was called into question and the condition of women and children seemed to belie the much vaunted idea of progress Essays in this book explore how these contradictions and concerns are reflected in nineteenth century literature In discussing historical figures characters and plots that are variously vulnerable and or resilient the essays reflect the breadth of nineteenth century literature from realist and sensational fiction to autobiography and poetry Besides providing insights into the transfigurative role writing played both as a means to express vulnerability and as a resilience process the essays also foster further reflection on two timeless dimensions of the human condition
