There are no Right Answers to Wrong Questions Peter C. Wilcox, 2016-06-28 Abraham Joshua Heschel said that We are closer to God when we are asking questions than when we have the answers He believed that to be a Christian is not to be a person who knows all the answers but one who lives in the part of the self where the question is constantly being born Most of us don t think very much about our questions In our culture we are accustomed to being able to find out answers to nearly any question just by typing it into Google search or asking Siri But behind any answer there is always a question Sometimes the question isn t clear to us sometimes it is not very well articulated even to ourselves But it is always there In over thirty years as a psychotherapist and spiritual director Peter C Wilcox has seen how the questions people ask themselves have shaped their lives in some very important ways This book is an invitation to see how important it is to learn how to ask the right questions about our lives This is because our choice of questions leads us on a path of discovery towards answers that help us to grow spiritually and psychologically Our questions orient our lives and give direction to us We will see that they enable us to make fifteen choices that have a tremendous impact on the kind of person we become

Laughing at Yourself Frank E. Burdett, 2014-03-17 Frank E Burdett is a survivor from seriousness This is no laughing matter and only needs a simple explanation Frank decided to divorce himself from all seriousness in an effort to gain control of his sense of humour Once he attained his sense of humour he realised that the amount of absurdity and nonsense that abounds in society can only be diagnosed in the gentlest of terms as over seriousness of epidemic proportions Frank has researched and evaluated the importance of nurturing your sense of humour in order to balance the well being of people everywhere especially against the high degrees of stress both emotional and work associated challenges that attack everyone today He came to the conclusion that people of all persuasions have completely lost the knack of being able to step aside and have a good and free laugh at themselves Therefore the time has come for you to learn to laugh at yourself and live longer Frank knows the effects of harrowing trauma being attacked mauled and carried away by a man eating tiger and curing himself of spreading melanoma cancer of the neck shoulder both lungs liver and bowel cancer He had been diagnosed by orthodox medicine as stage IV and given six months to live He tuned to find an alternative cure He has now been four years free of cancer Frank devised a technique whereby even you can benefit and learn to laugh at yourself You have nothing to lose except your overpowering seriousness Frank spent three years delving into the properties of laughing at yourself and he soon realised that there is more to laughing than showing a set of teeth Laughing at yourself allows you the complete freedom to see stress and serious ness in their proper light as a threat to your long lasting happiness This is your opportunity to take a real look at yourself by using Franks technique to step on the path towards learning the Art of Happiness You either want to be free from the pangs of stress and seriousness or you do not Your choice
