successes as well as the many failures He covers a variety of topics familiar to Western sports fans including professionalism fan violence corruption political meddling the sports press television and the effect of big money on competition More than just a sports book Serious Fun takes us deep into the social fabric of Soviet life Edelman shows how the Big Red machine so visible in international competition was much like the giant steel mills and dams of which the Soviets boasted These were the achievements of a state that put production above all else but spectator sport was part of a long suffering consumer sector that the industrial giant would never satisfy This volume will bring a broader richer understanding of Soviet life not only to students of popular culture and Russian history but to sports fans everywhere

Migration, Diaspora and Identity

Georgina Tsolidis,2013-10-07 Framed in relation to diaspora this collection engages with the subject of how cultural difference is lived and how complex and shifting identities shape and respond to spatial politics of belonging Diaspora is understood in a variety of ways which makes this an eclectic collection of papers Authors use various theoretical frameworks to explore diverse groups of people with a variety of experiences in a wide range of settings They are making sense of the experiences of women and men from a range of ethnic backgrounds negotiating identities through family work and education The micro dynamics of the everyday offer an evocative bottom up means of understanding the tensions implicit in living multiple belongings The common thread for the collection comes from the glimpses these authors provide into the remaking of our globalized world The aim is to shed light on racism dislocation and alienation on the one hand and on the other hand to consider how the complex power relations within the everyday mediate a sense of resistance and hope The papers are arranged around four themes 1 Multiple Belongings 2 Representing a Way of Being 3 Sexualised Identifications and 4 Marriage and Family
