The End of Umno? Essays on Malaysia's Former Dominant Party Bridget Welsh, 2022-12-06 What is the future of Malaysia's former dominant party the United Malays National Organisation or UMNO With the loss of government in the May 2018 General Election GE14 after 61 years in government the party faces a different more uncertain future It is grappling with its new role in the national political opposition and continued questions about the leadership of former prime minister Najib Tun Razak This collection is an expanded edition of the original 2016 The End of UMNO It includes the original five essays including the foreword by current Foreign Minister in the Pakatan Harapan government and former UMNO Supreme Council member Saifuddin Abdullah as well as new post GE14 epilogue essays by each of the contributors John Funston Clive Kessler James Chin and Bridget Welsh all prominent and established scholars studying Malaysian politics

It also includes a new foreword by veteran UMNO leader Tengku Razaleigh Hamzah who contested for the party presidency in the June 2018 party elections. The contributors in this collection study developments in Malaysia's dominant party, the United Malays National Organisation (UMNO), and discuss the question of whether UMNO is in fact at an end. The answers to its future lie in part with a better understanding of its past and present. The authors draw attention to issues of party identity, leadership, membership, governance, institutional change, party financing, internal divisions, and its relations with different communities and the public at large. The new and expanded edition draws attention to the factors that contributed to UMNO's loss of government in GE14 and potential steps ahead. Not only does this book fill an important gap in the scholarly research on UMNO, this book offers different perspectives on the party's contemporary challenges. This book aims to contribute to understanding, broaden public debate, and stimulate further research on arguably one of Malaysia's most important political institutions.

Connected Heritages Mareike Pampus, 2025-04-05. Connected Heritages: The Inner Life of Penang in the Indian Ocean World opens up the interdisciplinary possibilities of transnational and oceanic historical inquiry paired with granular ethnographic research. Departing from conventional land and nation-centric approaches, the book situates Penang, Malaysia, and particularly its historic core, George Town, within the fluid realm of lateral networks, revealing the profound influence of the sea on the port city's political, economic, social, and cultural landscape. It does so by integrating ethnographic depth, offering readers an intimate and immersive journey into the lived experiences of George Town's diverse communities, notably its two major Peranakan groups, with a broader historical and transnational understanding of the circulations that have shaped the inner life of the port city. Through the careful observation and interpretation of everyday practices, habits, and stories, this singular study paints a vivid portrait of the port city's complex connections and identities shaped by its maritime connections. In doing so, the book offers an anthropology of the everyday and its utility for developing our understanding of the ways in which people and communities in Penang perceive and interpret their contemporary reality.

Discourses, Agency and Identity in Malaysia Zawawi Ibrahim, Gareth Richards, Victor T. King, 2021-10-23. This book seeks to break new ground both empirically and conceptually in examining discourses of identity formation and the agency of critical social practices in Malaysia. Taking an inclusive cultural studies perspective, it questions the ideological narrative of race and ethnicity that dominates explanations of conflicts and cleavages in the Malaysian context. The contributions are organised in three broad themes: Identities in Contestation, Borders, Complexities, and Hybridities, which takes a range of empirical studies, literary translation, religion, gender, ethnicity, indigeneity, and sexual orientation to break down preconceived notions of fixed identities. This then opens up an examination of Identities and Movements, Agency and Alternative Discourses, in which contributors deal with counter-hegemonic social movements of anti-racism, young people, environmentalism, and independent publishing that explicitly seek to open up greater critical democratic space within the Malaysian polity. The third section, Identities and Narratives, Culture and the Media, then provides a close textual reading of some exemplars of new cultural and media practices found in oral testimonies popular music film radio programming and storytelling who have consciously created bodies of work that question the dominant national narrative This book is a valuable interdisciplinary work for advanced students and researchers interested in representations of identity and nationhood in Malaysia and for those with wider interests in the fields of critical cultural studies and discourse analysis Here is a fresh startling book to aid the task of unbinding the straitjackets of Malay Chinese and Indian with which colonialism bound Malaysia s plural inheritance and on which the postcolonial state continues to rely In it a panoply of unlikely identities Bajau liminality Kelabit philosophy Islamic feminism refugee hybridity and more finds expression and offers hope for liberation Rachel Leow University of Cambridge This book shakes the foundations of race thinking in Malaysian studies by expanding the range of cases perspectives and outcomes of identity It offers students of Malaysia an examination of identity and agency that is expansive critical and engaging and its interdisciplinary depth brings Malaysian studies into conversation with scholarship across the world Sumit Mandal University of Nottingham Malaysia This is a much needed work that helps us to take apart the colonial inherited categories of race which informed the notion of the plural society the idea of plurality without multiculturalism It complicates the picture of identity by bringing in religion gender indigeneity and sexual orientation and helps us to imagine what a truly multiculturalist Malaysia might look like Syed Farid Alatas National University of Singapore

Post-Islamism Battles Political Islam in Malaysia

Mohd Faizal Musa, 2023-10-27 During the 15th general election GE15 in 2022 and the state elections in 2023 the clash between Anwar Ibrahim and PAS reached new heights This can be viewed as a battle between political Islam and post Islamism Political Islam as embodied by PAS pursues the establishment of an Islamic state while post Islamism as represented by Anwar Ibrahim is a way of balancing the ambitions of Islam with secular approaches While PAS has been consistent in espousing political Islam since its establishment Anwar Ibrahim s approach to the role of Islam in politics has changed since his early days in UMNO Evolving from an Islamist involved in state led Islamization to a post Islamist he now espouses democratic values and multiculturalism GE15 and the 2023 state elections witnessed fierce competition between PAS and Anwar Ibrahim Both sides either escalated or downplayed crucial topics such as the implementation of hudud law and RUU355 the myth of Islam and Malays being under threat the claim that states under PAS are discriminated against and the takfiri denouncements of non Muslims as election candidates or potential leaders of the country The results of GE15 and the 2023 state elections between PAS and Anwar Ibrahim who is now prime minister show that there will certainly be sequels to come The elections illustrate that political Islam is growing in strength This is most evident in the fact that PAS currently has a whopping forty three seats in the Malaysian parliament and controls four states The only way Anwar Ibrahim can remain in power is through assistance from PAS old nemesis UMNO a party heavily tainted by corruption

Political Economy of Malaysia's Industrial Policy Firdausi Suffian, 2021-02-22 This book examines the national automotive policy in Malaysia to help readers gain an understanding of the country's industrial policy making processes Addressing a gap in analysis of the political economy of the national automotive policy the research presented combines the new institutional theory and the developmental state approach to provide new insights into elite policymakers measures to shield domestic automotive enterprises from pro market reforms The formation of the national car project marks a turning point for Malaysia's industrial development as a country which it envisions will lead to it becoming a major player in the global automotive market However the domestic institutional factors embedded in ethno economic interests and patronage constrain national car makers limiting their potential to grow and instead causing a slowdown in the industry Allowing readers to understand the background to Malaysia's heavy industrialisation programme and the birth of its national car projects this book critically discusses the significance of institutional context in policy outcomes and highlights how institutions and policies have impact growth or decline It is a valuable resource relevant to analysts researchers and students who are interested in the political economy of the national industrial policy and automotive industry in Malaysia and beyond

Race, Religion, Royalty in Malaysia Kumaran Rajandran, Siti Nurnadilla Mohamad Jamil, 2025-08-30 This edited volume conducts linguistic and literary analyses of the discourse involving race religion and royalty 3R in Malaysia Grounded in Discourse Studies it reveals the language features and strategies that articulate the vitality of 3R in historical and contemporary texts in English and Malay The chapters employ language based approaches to generate empirical explanations on 3R in multiple contexts This volume is of interest to scholars advanced undergraduate students and graduate students in Language Linguistics and Literature to understand the discursive contours of race religion and royalty in Asia

Tourism and Monarchy in Southeast Asia Ploysri Porananond, 2016-09-23 Monarchies around the world play a significant role in tourism development and the tourist experience Debates about the level of finance required to support monarchies often refer to the positive tourist attraction provided by royal pageantry palaces temples and churches architecture museum collections and historical legacies Up to now the literature on tourism and monarchy has been primarily devoted to the history and experiences of Western Europe particularly the United Kingdom There has been little attention devoted to the relationship between monarchy and tourism development in Southeast Asia and this is the first collection of essays to address this neglected field of study The need to shift the focus from European to Asian royalty is important not only to begin to fill gaps in the literature on monarchy and tourism outside Europe but also to avoid the increasing criticism of tourism studies that its major perspectives orientations and paradigms have been based on an overly Eurocentric preoccupation Case studies are taken from Thailand Laos Myanmar Vietnam Malaysia Indonesia Brunei Darussalam and Singapore Irregular Migrants and the Sea at the Borders of Sabah, Malaysia Vilashini Somiah, 2022-01-01 This book is an exploration of the relationship between irregular migrants many originating from southern Philippines and the sea in their struggle against the realities of state power in Sabah As their numbers grow exponentially into the 21st century the only solution currently provided by the Malaysian government is routine repatriation Yet despite increased border security they continue to return Thus the question why do deported migrants return time and again despite the serious risk of being caught This book explores the ways in which these irregular migrants contest inconvenient national sea boundaries the trauma of detention and deportation and other impositions of state power by drawing on supernatural support from the sea itself The sea empowers them and through individual narratives of the sea we learn that the migrants encounter with the state and its legal system only intensifies rather than discourages their relationship with the Malaysian state The Roots of Resilience Meredith L. Weiss, 2020-08-15 In The Roots of Resilience Meredith L. Weiss examines governance from the ground up in the world's two most enduring electoral authoritarian or hybrid regimes Singapore and Malaysia where politically liberal and authoritarian features blend evading substantive democracy Weiss explains that while key attributes of these regimes differ affecting the scope character and balance among national parties and policies local machines and personalized linkages the similarity in the overall patterns in these countries confirms the salience of those dimensions The Roots of Resilience shows that high levels of authoritarian acculturation amplifying the political payoffs of what parties and politicians actually provide their constituents explain why electoral turnover alone is insufficient for real regime change in either state Yearning to Belong Patrick Pillai, 2016-04-29 Malaysia is among the most ethnically diverse and culturally rich nations on earth Yet much of its cultural wealth lies buried beneath the rubric of its main Malay Chinese and Indian ethnic categories the dazzling diversity within and outside these groups remains largely unexplored This book uncovers some of this fascinating diversity through the stories of five little known acculturated ethnic groups in Peninsula Malaysia The author a Malaysian sociologist delivers an insightful and lucid study of these groups with some surprising findings These communities illustrate how much more cross cultural mingling sharing and co dependence there is within Malaysian society than we care to recognize admit or celebrate This raises various questions Is a similar process of spontaneous inter ethnic interaction possible between larger ethnic groups today How can we foster such acculturation and can it by itself contribute to ethnic harmony The author also discovers that despite their long settlement and deep acculturation segments of these groups are anxious about their future and pine for an indigenous identity What are the implications of this trend for ethnic relations and how can it be resolved This book traces the acculturation journey of these communities and draws lessons for ethnic relations in one of the most complex multi ethnic nations in the world It will appeal to scholars students laymen and visitors interested in migration history culture ethnicity and heritage in Malaysia and the region      Education in Malaysia Moses Samuel,Meng Yew Tee,Lorraine Pe

Symaco,2017-07-11 This book examines Malaysia s educational landscape providing a contemporary study of key themes that have emerged in this multicultural multi ethnic society as it attempts to shift from a middle income to a high income nation Combining contributions by scholars from various fields such as economics history sociology political science and of course education the book provides richer insights into Malaysia Offering a unique resource it will be of particular interest to educators researchers students policymakers and members of the public who want to be updated on the latest trends and challenges in Malaysian education      Controversial History Education in Asian Contexts Mark Baildon,Kah Seng Loh,Ivy

Maria Lim,Gül İnanc,Junaidah Jaffar,2013-08-22 This book examines both history textbook controversies AND teaching historical controversy in Asian contexts The different perspectives provided by the book s authors offer numerous insights examples and approaches for understanding historical controversy to provide a practical gold mine for scholars and practitioners The book provides case studies of history textbook controversies ranging from treatments of the Nanjing Massacre to a comparative treatment of Japanese occupation in Vietnamese and Singaporean textbooks to the differences in history textbooks published by secular and Hindu nationalist governments in India It also offers a range of approaches for teaching historical controversy in classrooms These include Structured Academic Controversy the use of Japanese manga teaching controversy through case studies student facilitated discussion processes and discipline based approaches that can be used in history classrooms The book s chapters will help educational researchers and curricularists consider new approaches for curriculum design curriculum study and classroom research      Class and Politics in Malaysian and

Singaporean Nation Building Muhamad M. N. Nadzri,2025-05-23 Nadzri explores a range of factors that have influenced nation building in Malaysia and Singapore with principal emphasis on the importance of social and economic class In contrast to previous studies on nation building which overwhelmingly rely on the explanatory power of culture race and ethnic community the book foregrounds the importance of social and economic status The three main themes explored in this book are how the nation building projected in each country is driven by the class interests of its ruling elites how elections have impacted the politics of nation building and how each country s nation building policies are designed to build political loyalty and support for the ruling elites The comparability of analytical outcomes using the prism of class interests uncovers the limitations of the explanatory power of race ethnic community and culture in understanding the social and political dynamics of the two countries A valuable read for scholars and students of politics in Malaysia and Singapore that will also be of interest to scholars of comparative approaches to nation building      The Palgrave Handbook of Conflict and History Education in the Post-Cold War Era Luigi Cajani,Simone Lässig,Maria Repoussi,2019-06-28 This Handbook provides a systematic and analytical approach to the various dimensions of international ethnic and domestic conflict over the uses of national history in education since the end of the Cold War With an upsurge in political social and cultural upheaval particularly since the fall of state socialism in Europe the importance of history textbooks and curricula as tools for influencing the outlooks of entire generations is thrown into sharp relief Using case studies from 58 countries this book explores how history education has had the potential to shape political allegiances and collective identities The contributors highlight the key issues over which conflict has emerged including the legacies of socialism and communism war dictatorships and genocide issues which frequently point to tensions between adhering to and challenging the idea of a cohesive national identity and historical narrative Global in scope the Handbook will appeal to a diverse academic audience including historians political scientists educationists psychologists sociologists and scholars working in the field of cultural and media studies

Negotiating Ethnic Diversity and National Identity in History Education Helen Mu Hung Ting, Luigi Cajani, 2023-05-26 This edited book explores the problems and challenges of negotiating the representation of ethnic minorities within history education It investigates how states balance the non acknowledgement of the reality of cultural or religious diversity and the promotion of a point of convergence in history education to foster national identity Shifting our attention away from the intractable challenges posed by post conflict countries for reconciliation the contributors draw attention to the need to explore ways to prevent or pre empt conflicts and exclusion through history education which could contribute to developing a more sustainable culture of peace Drawing on a wide range of contexts and sources this book asks how history education could contribute to forming critical historically informed and committed young citizens The book will be of interest to students and academics working on themes such as nationalism citizenship ethnicity history education multicultural education peace studies and area studies as well as practitioners in the fields of history social studies civic or citizenship

Trade Regionalism in the Asia-Pacific Sanchita Basu Das, 2017-03-09 Asia has witnessed a proliferation of free trade agreements FTAs since the turn of the millennium The first regional agreement the ASEAN FTA was transformed into the ASEAN Economic Community at the end of 2015 In the meantime ASEAN forged five ASEAN 1 FTAs and began to negotiate a sixteen member Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership RCEP Agreement In parallel the U S led Trans Pacific Partnership TPP supporting U S foreign policy of e Pivot to Asiae was broadly agreed in October 2015 The RCEP and the TPP are accompanied by other mega regional integration processes developing elsewhere in the world including the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership for the European Union and the United States and the Pacific Alliance among four Latin American member states Meanwhile APEC is also striving to meet its Bogor Goal targets and create a Free Trade Area of the Asia Pacific Each of these mega regionals aims to achieve greater trade and investment liberalization and facilitation and more harmonized trade and investment rules so that all member economies can participate in the global value chain of production Instead of undermining these regional exercises can be building blocks for a more liberal global trading system supported by the World Trade Organization This book ruminates on these regional agreements
