Translated Woman Crossing The Border With Esperanza S Story:

Translated Woman Ruth Behar, 2014-10-28 Translated Woman tells the story of an unforgettable encounter between Ruth Behar a Cuban American feminist anthropologist and Esperanza Hernandez a Mexican street peddler The tale of Esperanza s extraordinary life yields unexpected and profound reflections on the mutual desires that bind together anthropologists and their subjects Taboo, 2004 Melanesian Odysseys Lisette Josephides, 2008 In a series of epic self narratives ranging from traditional cultural embodiments to picaresque adventures Christian epiphanies and a host of interactive strategies and techniques for living Kewa Highlanders PNG attempt to shape and control their selves and their relentlessly changing world This account transcends ethnographic particularity and offers a wide reaching perspective on the nature of being human Inverting the analytic logic of her previous work which sought to uncover what social structures concealed Josephides focuses instead on the cultural understandings that people make explicit in their actions and speech Using approaches from philosophy and anthropology she examines elicitation how people create their selves and their worlds in the act of making explicit and mimesis how anthropologists produce ethnographies to arrive at an unexpected conclusion that knowledge of self and other alike derives from self externalization rather than self introspection BOOK JACKET

Ahluwalia, 2008-01-10 An investigation of elitist initiatives to limit population growth in India Killing with Kindness Mark Schuller, 2012-09-24 Winner of the 2015 Margaret Mead Award from the American Anthropological Association and the Society for Applied Anthropology After Haiti s 2010 earthquake over half of U S households donated to thousands of nongovernmental organizations NGOs in that country Yet we continue to hear stories of misery from Haiti Why have NGOs failed at their mission Set in Haiti during the 2004 coup and aftermath and enhanced by research conducted after the 2010 earthquake Killing with Kindness analyzes the impact of official development aid on recipient NGOs and their relationships with local communities Written like a detective story the book offers rich ethnographic comparisons of two Haitian women s NGOs working in HIV AIDS prevention one with public funding including USAID the other with private European NGO partners Mark Schuller looks at participation and autonomy analyzing donor policies that inhibit these goals He focuses on NGOs roles as intermediaries in gluing the contemporary world system together and shows how power works within the aid system as these intermediaries impose interpretations of unclear mandates down the chain a process Schuller calls trickle down imperialism

Kitchenspace Maria Elisa Christie, 2009-08-17 Throughout the world the kitchen is the heart of family and community life Yet while everyone has a story to tell about their grandmother s kitchen the myriad activities that go on in this usually female world are often devalued and little scholarly attention has been paid to this crucial space in which family gender and community relations are forged and maintained To give the kitchen the prominence and respect it merits Maria Elisa Christie here offers a pioneering ethnography of kitchenspace in three central Mexican communities Xochimilco Ocotepc and Tetecala Christie coined the term kitchenspace to encompass both the inside kitchen area in which everyday meals for the family are made and the larger outside cooking area in which elaborate meals for community fiestas are prepared by many women working together She explores how both kinds of meal preparation create bonds among family and community members In particular she shows how women s work in preparing food for fiestas gives women status in their communities and creates social networks of reciprocal obligation In a culture rigidly stratified by gender Christie concludes kitchenspace gives women a source of power and a place in which to transmit the traditions and beliefs of older generations through quasi sacramental food rites

Handbook of Interview Research Jaber F. Gubrium, James A. Holstein, 2002 The Handbook of Interview Research is the most ambitious attempt yet at examining the place of the interview in contemporary society Interviewing is the predominant mode of research in the social sciences It s also the stock in trade of information seekers in organizations and institutions of all kinds as well as in the mass media Across the board interviews provide today s leading window on the world of experience The Handbook offers a comprehensive examination of the interview at the cutting edge of information technology Drawing upon leading experts from a wide range of professional disciplines this book addresses conceptual and technical challenges that confront both academic researchers and interviewers with more applied goals From interview theory to the nuts and bolts of the interview process the coverage is impressively broad and authoritative The Handbook of Interview Research is both encyclopedic and thematic As an encyclopedia it provides extensive discussions of the methodological issues now surrounding interview practice offering a multi faceted assessment of what has become the method of choice for obtaining personal information in today s society But the Handbook also is a story which spins a particular tale of interviewing one that moves from the commonly recognized individual interview to what is called the interview society The gist of the presentation is that we can no longer regard the interview as simply an instrument for gathering data but must now also view it an integral part of society

Prostitution Research in Context Marlene Spanger, May-Len Skilbrei, 2017-03-16 The starting point for this book is the question of how we research sex for sale and the implications of the choices we make in terms of epistemology and ethics Which dilemmas and ethical aspects need to be taken into account when producing qualitative data within a highly politicised and moral infected realm These two questions are exactly what Spanger and Skilbrei aim to unpack in this unusual interdisciplinary methodology book Prostitution Research in Context The book offers contributions from a number of scholars who based on their reflections on their own research practice and the existing knowledge field discuss ongoing methodological issues and challenges representative of international research on sex for sale Some chapters deal explicitly with methodological dilemmas in research others thematise the encounter between prostitution research and general texts on epistemology Other chapters again actively engage with the ethical dilemmas that research on the topic of sex for sale can entail The authors represent different disciplines but share an interest in engaging in reflexive research practices informed by feminism and feminist epistemologies An authoritative contribution to the field this innovative volume will appeal to international scholars and students from across the social sciences and humanities in areas such as sociology anthropology criminology media studies feminist studies human geography and history

The Latino/a Condition Richard Delgado, Jean Stefancic, 1998-05 All too often groups who do not effectively define themselves find that others assume the power to explain them Until recently this has certainly been the case with American Latinos as evidenced by demeaning media stereotypes and the group's near invisibility in U S history texts Indeed as the demise of the Soviet empire shifted America's national anxieties to domestic irritants images of Latinos as changed for the worse Immigration reform acts in 1965 and 1986 brought millions of new immigrants from Latin American countries By the end of the 1980s their presence had become vexing to many English only movements sprang up Bilingual education came under attack Movements to close the border gained momentum Now Latinos are speaking back The Latino Condition brings together some of these new voices and some of the pioneers in law sociology history politics and literature This pathbreaking volume addresses such questions as Who exactly is a Latino a Who is Hispanic Who is Chicano a How did Spanish speaking people come to the United States Should the United States try to control Latino a immigration and is this even possible How has the silent minority been stereotyped by popular culture Why don't traditional civil rights remedies work for Latinos as Is assimilation possible or even desirable for all Latinos as What makes for conflict between Latinos as and other racial groups Are Latinos as a race or an ethnicity Should Latino a children be taught in Spanish What can border theory tell us about culture language and power

Feminist Research Practice Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber, 2013-07-18 The fully revised and updated edition of Feminist Research Practice A Primer draws on the expertise of a stellar group of interdisciplinary scholars who cover cutting edge research methods and explore research questions related to the complex and diverse issues that deeply impact women's lives This text offers a unique hands on approach to research by featuring engaging and relevant exercises as well as behind the scenes glimpses of feminist researchers at work The in depth examples cover the range of research questions that feminists engage with including issues of gender inequality violence against women body image issues and the discrimination of other marginalized groups Written in a clear concise manner that invites students to explore and practice a wide range of research the Second Edition offers seven new chapters that reflect the latest scholarship in the field a stronger focus on ethics new examples that bring concepts to life effective learning tools and more Writing Educational Biography Craig Kridel, 2013-11-26 This collection examines the many influences of biographical inquiry in education and discusses methodological issues from the perspective of veteran and novice biographers Contributors underscore the documentary interpretive and literary concerns of biographical and archival work and their essays reveal the complexity distinctiveness and sense of exploration of scholarly endeavors The Annual Review of Women in World Religions Arvind

Sharma, Katherine K. Young, 2001-11-01 The Annual Review of Women in World Religions is polymethodic interdisciplinary and multitrade in its approach to the study of women and religion It not only allows the comparative dimension to appear in bolder relief but also helps to establish a dialogue between the two solitudes of humanistic and social scientific studies in the field The book encourages women and men of all beliefs to participate in the on going dialogue that it represents and promotes Volume VI includes the following contributions Reinhold Niebuhr Sin and Contextuality A Re evaluation of the Feminist Critique by Jennifer S Baichwal Silent Resistance A Hindu Child Widow s Lived Experience by Shampa Mazumdar and Sanjoy Mazumdar Gender and Ritual in South East China by Samantha Anderson The Rise of the Mapuche Moon Priestess in Southern Chile by Ana Mariella Bacigalupo and Feminist Historiography Patriarchal Ideology and the Future of Sisterhood A Review Essay of Sisters in Arms Catholic Nuns Through Two Millennia by Jo Ann Kay McNamara by Julie B Miller Translating Childhoods Marjorie Faulstich Orellana, 2009-05-18 Though the dynamics of immigrant family life has gained attention from scholars little is known about the younger generation often considered invisible Translating Childhoods a unique contribution to the study of immigrant youth brings children to the forefront by exploring the work they perform as language and culture brokers and the impact of this largely unseen contribution Skilled in two vernaculars children shoulder basic and more complicated verbal exchanges for non English speaking adults Readers hear through children s own words what it means be in the middle or the keys to communication that adults otherwise would lack Drawing from ethnographic data and research in three immigrant communities Marjorie Faulstich Orellana s study expands the definition of child labor by assessing children s roles as translators as part of a cost equation in an era of global restructuring and considers how sociocultural learning and development is shaped as a result of children s contributions as translators

Sociology in America Craig Calhoun, 2008-09-15 Though the word sociology was coined in Europe the field of sociology grew most dramatically in America Despite that disproportionate influence American sociology has never been the subject of an extended historical examination To remedy that situation and to celebrate the centennial of the American Sociological Association Craig Calhoun assembled a team of leading sociologists to produce Sociology in America Rather than a story of great sociologists or departments Sociology in America is a true history of an often disparate field and a deeply considered look at the ways sociology developed intellectually and institutionally It explores the growth of American sociology as it addressed changes and challenges throughout the twentieth century covering topics ranging from the discipline's intellectual roots to understandings and misunderstandings of race and gender to the impact of the Depression and the 1960s Sociology in America will stand as the definitive treatment of the contribution of twentieth century American sociology and will be required reading for all sociologists Contributors Andrew Abbott Daniel Breslau Craig Calhoun Charles Camic Miguel A Centeno Patricia Hill Collins Marjorie L DeVault Myra Marx Ferree Neil Gross Lorine A Hughes Michael D Kennedy Shamus Khan Barbara Laslett Patricia Lengermann Doug McAdam Shauna A Morimoto Aldon Morris Gillian Niebrugge Alton Phillips James F Short Jr Alan Sica James T Sparrow George Steinmetz Stephen Turner Jonathan VanAntwerpen Immanuel Wallerstein Pamela Barnhouse Walters Howard Winant

Girls of the Factory M. Laetitia Cairoli, 2011-06-01 In Morocco today the idea of female laborers is generally frowned upon Yet despite this many women are beginning to find work in factories Laetitia Cairoli spent a year in the ancient city of Fes Girls of the Factory tells the story of what life is like for working women Forced to find a factory job herself so that she could speak more intimately with working women she was able to learn firsthand why they work what working means to them and how important earning a wage is to their sense of self Cairoli conveys a general sense of the working life of women in Morocco by describing daily life inside a Moroccan sewing factory She also reveals the additional work they face inside their homes More than an ethnography this volume is also for those who want to better understand what life is like for a new generation of young women just entering the workforce
