Travels Within Art And Poetry:

Travel, Tourism and Art Tijana Rakić, Jo-Anne Lester, 2016-02-17 Art in its many forms has long played an important role in people's imagination, experience and remembrance of places, cultures and travels as well as in their motivation to travel. Travel and tourism on the other hand have also inspired numerous artists and featured in many artworks. The fascinating relationships between travel, tourism and art encompass a wide range of phenomena from historical Grand Tours during which a number of travellers experienced or produced artwork to present-day travel inspired by art, artworks produced by contemporary travellers or artworks produced by locals for tourist consumption. Focusing on the representations of touristic places, locals, travellers and tourists in artworks, the role of travel and tourism in inspiring artists as well as the role of art and artwork in imagining, experiencing and remembering places and motivating travel and tourism, this edited volume provides a space for an exploration of both historical and contemporary relationships between travel, tourism and art. Bringing together scholars from a wide range of disciplines and fields of study including geography, anthropology, history, philosophy and urban cultural tourism, art and leisure studies, this volume discusses a range of case studies across different art forms and locales.

Traveling Show Robert E. Zucker, 2013-10-15 Everyone has his or her own Traveling Show. As we interact with the people we meet, their influences on our lives shape the way we grow and how we present ourselves to the world. The people in these poems lived and died with their own Traveling Shows as they tried to reach for rainbows. Some never did finish that journey. Through their eyes, I wrote about their travels through life. Through my eyes, they became my own travels.

Hua Yan (1682-1756) and the Making of the Artist in Early Modern China Kristen L. Chiem, 2020-05-25 Hua Yan 1682-1756 and the Making of the Artist in Early Modern China explores the relationships between the artist, local society and artistic practice during the Qing dynasty 1644-1911. Arranged as an investigation of the artist Hua Yan's work at a pivotal moment in eighteenth-century society, this book considers his paintings and poetry in early eighteenth-century Hangzhou, mid-eighteenth-century Yangzhou and finally their nineteenth-century afterlife in Shanghai. By investigating Hua Yan's struggle as a marginalized artist both at his time and in the canon of Chinese art, this study draws attention to the implications of seeing and being seen as an artist in early modern China.

Melville and the Visual Arts Douglas Robillard, 1997 Melville's allusions to works of art embellish his poems and novels. In this study, his use of the art analogy as a literary technique is traced along with the influence of his predecessors and contemporaries and how his sense of form was instructed by design in works of art.
