The Erotic Bird Maurice Natanson,2021-09-14 How does literature illuminate the way we live Maurice Natanson a prominent champion of phenomenology draws upon this method s unique power to show how fiction can highlight aspects of experience that are normally left unexamined By exploring the structure of the everyday world Natanson reveals the uncanny that lies at the core of the ordinary Phenomenology which involves the questioning of that which we usually take for granted is for Natanson the essence of philosophy Drawing upon his philosophical predecessors Edmund Husserl Alfred Schutz and Jean Paul Sartre Natanson paves his own way with stories and examples that themselves bear witness to how phenomenology occurs in literature In considering such works as Samuel Beckett s Waiting for Godot Thomas Mann s The Magic Mountain and Franz Kafka s The Metamorphosis Natanson shows how literature opens us to the domain of possibility and how metaphor offers philosophical power when we think about freedom and change This book written by one of the twentieth century s leading phenomenologists will interest students in philosophy and in literature They will value the work particularly for its clarification of concepts and terms that frequently emerge in the contemporary intellectual climate

Identity Papers Helene Meyers,2011-12-01 Argues that debates about Jewish identity and assimilation are signs of creative potential rather than crisis Identity Papers argues that contemporary Jewish American literature revises our understanding of Jewishness and Jewish difference Moving beyond the reductive labeling of texts and authors as too Jewish or not Jewish enough and focusing instead on narratives that portray Jewish regeneration through feminist Orthodoxy queerness off whiteness and intermarriage Helene Meyers resists a lachrymose view of contemporary Jewish American life She argues that such gendered sexed and raced debates about Jewish identity become opportunities rather than crises signs of creative potential rather than symptoms of assimilation and deracination Thus feminist debates within Orthodoxy are allied to Jewish continuity by Rebecca Goldstein Allegra Goodman and Tova Mirvis the geography of Jewish identity is racialized by Alfred Uhry Tony Kushner and Philip Roth and the works of Jyl Lynn Felman Judith Katz Lev Raphael and Michael Lowenthal queer the Jewish family as they reveal homophobia to be an abomination Even as Identity Papers expands Jewish literary horizons and offers much needed alternatives to the culture wars between liberal and traditional Jews it argues that Jewish difference productively troubles dominant narratives of feminist queer and whiteness studies Meyers demonstrates that the evolving Jewish American literary renaissance is anything but provincial rather it is engaged with categories of difference central to contemporary academic discourses and our national life Ultimately Meyers offers not only nuanced readings of many texts but also a cogent argument about the generative possibilities for American Jewish futurity through an undoing of what constitutes normative understandings of Jewish bodies families and relationships Journal of Jewish Identities Identity Papers is an important thoughtful text that will appeal to those with an interest in postmodern inquiries into multiculturalism identity theory and selfhood MELUS This is a sophisticated nuanced critical study of contemporary Jewish American literature Taking an anthropological approach to Jewish and Judaic cultural expression Meyers provides probing subtle analyses Highly recommended CHOICE
