

Treasure Hunt Clues for Kids

Getting the first clue will be a joy. Look for it where you would put your toy.

Now that you are playing the game, look in the place where we keep your picture in a frame.

If you want to find more clues, look in the place where you put your shoes.

Get up now and walk on your feet, you will find the next clue under your favorite seat.

You are finding clues and feeling bold, now go to the place that keeps foods really cold.

The next clue is easily seen if you go to the place where you to go get clean.

This isn't a wild goose chase if you go to the place where you can see your own face.

While you are up walking around, go to the place where you go to lay down.

When you look for the next clue you might plug your nose, its hiding in the place you store your dirty clothes.

You have worked hard to get every clue, to find the last one go where the coffee does brew.

The Dakota Sioux Experience at Flandreau and Pipestone Indian Schools Cynthia Landrum, 2019-01-01 The

Dakota Sioux Experience at Flandreau and Pipestone Indian Schools illuminates the relationship between the Dakota Sioux community and the schools and surrounding region as well as the community's long term effort to maintain its role as caretaker of the sacred citadel of its people Cynthia Leanne Landrum explores how Dakota Sioux students at Flandreau Indian School in South Dakota and at Pipestone Indian School in Minnesota generally accepted the idea that they should attend these particular boarding institutions because they saw them as a means to an end and ultimately as community schools This construct operated within the same philosophical framework in which some Eastern Woodland nations approached a non Indian education that was simultaneously tied to long term international alliances between Europeans and First Peoples beginning in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Landrum provides a new perspective from which to consider the Dakota people's overt acceptance of this non Native education system and a window into their ongoing evolutionary relationships with all of the historic overtures and tensions that began the moment alliances were first brokered between the Algonquian Confederations and the European powers
