Breaking a Rainbow, Building a Nation Rekgotsofetse Chikane, 2018-10-01 Breaking a Rainbow Building a Nation is a first hand account of the university protests that gripped South Africa between 2015 and 2017 widely better known as the FeesMustFall Chikane outlines the nature of student politics in the country before during and after the emergence of MustFall politics exploring the political dynamics that informed and drove the student protests and the effect that these MustFall movements have had on the nature of youth politics in the country Chikane looks at how the current nature of youth politics is different from previous youth upheavals that have defined South Africa specifically due to the fact that the protests were being led by so called coconuts who are part of the black elite Breaking a Rainbow Building a Nation poses the provocative question can coconuts be trusted with the revolution Apartheid and Fragmented Protest in Contemporary Southern Africa Cuthbeth Tagwirei, 2025-09-29 Apartheid and Fragmented Protest in Contemporary Southern Africa examines protest movements through the lens of Apartheid Studies the first general theory of apartheid which explores how oppression harm injustice poverty loss and inequality persist The book argues that apartheid which breaks the world of the oppressed into fragments fomenting diverse experiences of oppression among its victims frames the nature and course of protests by making them subject to its fragmentation Protest is thus redefined as good neighbourly and demoted on account of its symbiotic relationship to apartheid It is observed that the proliferation of protests does not preclude the persistence of apartheid Rather protest and apartheid are seen to be compatible By examining protest hashtags on X from South Africa and Zimbabwe the book explores and identifies the forms relations meanings trajectories and effects protests take evoke and embody as fragments subsisting in a fractured apartheid universe It demonstrates how and why life goes on amidst protest sheds light on the contradictions paradoxes and complexities that characterise protest movements and invites conversations around protest as a paradigm in the context of apartheid The book will be of interest to researchers across the fields of social movements protests sociology African Studies and communication and media studies Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and it s double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratized university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt

Serving Higher Purposes Ihron Rensburg, 2020-11-05 Universities of the 21st century and beyond must be about teaching learning research excellence creativity and innovation as much as they must be about enabling the destiny of students communities and nations to realize their potential UJ succeeded in her vision and responsibilities to transform the divisions prejudices and limitations that often restrain the advancement of society The story of UJ's transition to an inclusive diverse dynamic bold and purposeful institution of learning demands to be read by everyone South African African and beyond It is a story of how to be an object rather than the subject of history while dynamically shaping our shared futures laying a solid foundation for future generations to be advocates and architects for social change and cohesion It is a story of courageous and visionary leadership The book offers our nation profound lessons in leadership that should enrich all our efforts to transform institutions in a sustainable way to play a meaningful role in building ONE NATION DR WENDY LUHABE Economic Activist Social Entrepreneur First Chancellor of the University of Johannesburg

Factors Influence Students' Resistance to the NSFAS Online Funding Application Process at the Tshwane University of Technology Seipati Peggy Mochiza, 2016 The purpose of this study is to determine which factors influence the formation of intention to adopt the NSFAS online financial application system at Tshwane University of Technology TUT and to identify barriers to adoption experienced by the NSFAS applicants at TUT To achieve these objectives the study utilised the Technology Acceptance Model TAM and the Ram Sheth 1989 concept of barriers to model TUT NSFAS adoption patterns To test this conceptual framework a descriptive quantitative research survey approach was conducted Data was collected through self completion structured questionnaires from a sample of 644 TUT students in September 2015 SPSS Version 23 and STATA 12 were utilised to conduct descriptive and multivariate analyses including correlations and structural equation modelling respectively
