Viral Leonard Sweet, 2012-03-13 The gospel is nothing without relationship And no one gets it like the Google Generation God came to earth to invite us personally into a relationship And while Christians at times downplay relationships the social media generation is completely sold on the idea In Viral Leonard Sweet says Christians need to learn about connecting with others from the experts those who can't seem to stop texting IM'ing tweeting and updating their Facebook statuses What would happen he asks if Christians devoted less attention to strategies and statistics and paid more attention to pursuing relationships The current generation is driven by a God-given desire to know others and to be known by others Most of them in seeking to connect in meaningful ways have found a place of belonging that is outside the organized church Why not bring the two together Those who are sold out to relationships can teach Christians how to be better friends to people who need God At the same time members of the social media generation can learn how to follow their desire for belonging straight into the arms of God It's time for relationship to be restored to the heart of the gospel And when that happens can revival be far behind End of Chapter Interactives Included Arthur Kennedy, Man of Characters Meredith C. Four Weird Tales Robert W. Chambers, 2015-10-22 Adventures come to the adventurous and mysterious things fall in the way of those who with wonder and imagination are on the watch for them but the majority of people go past the doors that are half ajar thinking them closed and fail to notice the faint stirrings of the great curtain that hangs ever in the form of appearances between them and the world of causes behind For only to the few whose inner senses have been quickened perchance by some strange suffering in the depths or by a natural temperament bequeathed from a remote past comes the knowledge not too welcome that this greater world lies ever at their elbow and that any moment a chance combination of moods and forces may invite them to cross the shifting frontier Some however are born with this awful certainty in their hearts and are called to no apprenticeship and to this select company Jones undoubtedly belonged All his life he had realised that his senses brought to him merely a more or less interesting set of sham appearances that space as men measure it was utterly misleading that time as the clock ticked it in a succession of minutes was arbitrary nonsense and in fact that all his sensory perceptions were but a clumsy representation of real things behind the curtain things he was for ever trying to get at and that sometimes he actually did get at He had always been tremblingly aware that he stood on the borderland of another region a region where time and space were merely forms of thought where ancient memories lay open to the sight and where the forces behind each human life stood plainly revealed and he could see the hidden springs at the very heart of the world Moreover the fact that he was a clerk in a fire insurance office and did his work with strict attention never allowed him to forget for one moment that just beyond the dingy brick walls where the hundred men scribbled with pointed pens beneath the electric lamps there existed this glorious region where the important part of himself dwelt and moved and had its being For in this region he pictured himself playing the part of a spectator to his ordinary workaday life watching like a king the stream of events but untouched in his own soul by the dirt the noise and the vulgar commotion of the outer world
