

Sunflowers, (1889, Vincent's last painting)
 Oil on paper, 19cm x 27cm
 Van Gogh Museum, Amsterdam

THE BASICS

Approx. 1 hour
 (less if you use smaller paper)

Vincent van Gogh is well known for his sunflower paintings and was even quoted as saying, "the sunflower is mine".

In this lesson, children will learn about van Gogh and his art. They will then create their own version of van Gogh's famous painting of sunflowers.

This lesson is designed for children ages 3-11, or grades K-5. I would suggest using smaller paper with younger children (or if you are short on time).

WHAT YOU NEED:

- Sulphite paper or poster paper. I recommend a 12" x 18" sheet (I like Black or Phasing). You can reduce the size of the paper if you are short on time.
- Liquid tempera paint. (I like Phang.)
 (NOTE: Feel free to use acrylic paint if you have it (you will need water), or use crayons, markers or pencil crayons if that is all you have.
- Pencils
- Scissors
- Paintbrushes (flat edge nylon or taklon, small and medium size).
- Painting mats (large sheets of poster board) OR water and containers (see next page for details).
- Vase and dot template (optional)
- Sunflower seeds (optional)
- Books about Van Gogh.
- Artist bio and study guide (included)

Tales out of Class Steve Eddison, 2025-04-28 An engaging humorous collection of stories from Steve Eddison all based on his real life experiences as a classroom teacher

Teaching Primary Art Jean Edwards, 2014-06-03 Teaching Primary Art is an introductory textbook for those training to teach and support learning in art in the primary school The book first explores the underpinning philosophy and pedagogy of teaching and learning art including why we teach it planning and assessment and teaching and support strategies Then it covers the practical aspects of teaching art including a list of useful vocabulary to encourage talk around art and links to cross curricular learning

Poetics of Alterity Soyoung Lee, 2022-11-14 POETICS OF ALTERITY Education today is commonly oriented towards citizenship and skills for life with aims of happiness and wellbeing But this benign image harbours surreptitious forms of control which ultimately undermine the goods it professes to safeguard and stifle education s very purpose What release can there be from these constrictions Release is to be found as Soyoung Lee eloquently shows by attending to elements of experience that seem to escape our grip from challenging aspects of our moral lives to struggles over practicalities of curriculum content The more robust more outward turning orientation she demonstrates emphasises engagement with subject matter with problems and forms of narrative that defy pre determined formulations and categories This requires turning towards objects worthy of attention and towards people and their claims on us The arts and the humanities have special importance as spaces where alterity presents and expresses itself Lee s dialogue with Heidegger Levinas Derrida and Celan shows how acknowledgement of the other must condition not only practices of teaching and learning but practicalities of our social and political lives Attending to anxieties inherent in teaching and learning in school and the wider world the book s powerful rationale for the curriculum provides nothing less than a new grounding for the humanities

Creating Meaning Through Art Judith W. Simpson, 1998 This innovative book helps readers develop a personal philosophy and an artful approach to teaching This text uses the premise that teacher choices set the stage for a balanced approach to art education that considers the child society and the curriculum This book provides information regarding artistic development artistic behavior and methodology for developing curriculum across the developmental spectrum The reader is directly addressed as each chapter presents recent research along with important concepts to understand focuses on different aspects of art education and outlines advantages and challenges of making the suggested choices and also includes suggested activities so readers can act upon content For art teachers at the elementary or secondary education level or students studying to be art teachers

Personal, Social and Emotional Development through the arts Chris Ford, 2011

Evidence Based Teaching Geoffrey Petty, 2006 Evidence Based Teaching brings together UK developed strategies ideas and advice providing general principles for teaching as well as very specific methods all of which can substantially improve teaching and a few of which are in common use in the UK The book demonstrates how to teach school effectiveness and school improvement research It also shows how to teach thinking skills multiple representations and constructivism The book also examines the best practice in UK university and further education FE teaching

Florida Standards Susan Nelson Wood, 2007 Florida Standards A Handbook for Teaching in the Sunshine State is a book for elementary and secondary teachers in Florida's schools Focusing specifically on one geographic area the discussion is grounded using the language resources and policies as they currently exist in the sunshine state At the heart of this book is a focus on student learning Contextualized across domains of learning school demographics student needs and curricular variance this book is meant to provide readers with increased understanding about how to make a difference in the classroom

FEATURES Outcome expectations Goals and objectives for what readers should accomplish are presented in the introduction and at the start of each chapter Reflective prompts To support readers as they monitor and self assess a series of reflective prompts are placed throughout the handbook Before reading features As a window into the complex issues addressed in this handbook Taking a Stance boxes are placed at the beginning of each chapter These open ended statements invite readers to consider their positions and opinions before reading During reading features Informing and Articulating Your Stance mid chapter checkpoints and text boxes appear throughout each chapter serving as prompts for further thinking writing and discussion After reading features Toward the end of each chapter Researching and Extending Your Stance a series of questions revisit initial assumptions and offer suggestions for further research Evidence learning Each chapter ends with a Summary section that contains specific questions aligned with the chapter's objective In addition all writing completed during the reading of this handbook will document student learning and serve as artifacts in a professional portfolio

Resources Due to the constant shifts in standards and assessments the primary resources offered in this handbook are Internet links Websites have been carefully selected to give readers the kind of specificity impossible to contain in an affordable text like this

Researching Early Childhood Literacy in the Classroom Lucy

Henning, 2019-11-05 This volume demonstrates how the ethnographic approach to research demanded by a Literacy as Social Practice perspective can generate fresh insights into what happens when young children engage with schooled literacy tasks

Researching Early Childhood Literacy in the Classroom argues that the lived experience of young children encountering formal schooled literacy curricula should be the foremost consideration in educational reforms intended to improve rates of literacy acquisition in schools To make this argument the author suspends traditional concerns with learning and progress to concentrate on practice and meaning in a careful analysis of key classroom incidents The author concludes that such insights suggest a need for re considering the assumptions upon which educational policy rests This book will be of great interest to graduate and postgraduate students researchers academics and libraries in the fields of Literacy Studies Teacher Education
