Helen R. Cutler,1864 The Nectar of Bodhicitta Lama Zopa Rinpoche,2021-09-12 LYWA director Nick Ribush writes The story behind this book is that in the early Kopan Monastery courses Lama Zopa Rinpoche would start his day s teachings by quoting a verse from Shantideva s or Khunu Lama Rinpoche s seminal texts giving a short teaching on it and then suggesting that students use it to generate a bodhicitta motivation for the day s activities mainly teachings meditations and discussion groups but also ordinary activities such as eating talking walking around and so forth Since those days I ve always thought that a compilation of these short teachings would make a great book and finally here it is Editor Gordon McDougall has assembled Rinpoche s teachings into two parts sorted by author of the verses and arranged thematically In Part One Lama Zopa Rinpoche teaches on selected verses from Khunu Lama Rinpoche s Jewel Lamp now published as Vast as the Heavens Deep as the Sea Lama Zopa Rinpoche advises Understanding and constantly reminding ourselves of the skies of benefits that bodhicitta brings is unbelievably worthwhile This is the overall purpose of Khunu Lama Rinpoche s book to cause us to feel inspired and joyful that such a mind is possible In Part Two Rinpoche teaches on verses from the first chapter of Shantideva s Guide to the Bodhisattva s Way of Life These verses describe the amazing benefits of developing the precious mind of bodhicitta the supreme cause of happiness for all sentient beings Buddhism for Busy People David Michie,2017-05-16

In this simple and accessible but beautifully written book David Michie opens the door to the core teachings of Tibetan Buddhism and shows us how he himself first began incorporating Buddhist practices into his daily life What does it take to be happy We ve all asked ourselves this question at some point but few of us have found the path to lasting fulfillment David Michie thought he had achieved his life s goals the high level job the expensive city apartment the luxury car the great vacations but a small voice was telling him he wasn't really happy. A chance remark from a naturopath sent him to his local Buddhist center. There he began the most important journey of his life. In Buddhism for Busy People, Michie explains how he came to understand the difference between the temporary pleasures of ordinary life and the profound sense of well-being and heartfelt serenity that comes from connecting with our inner nature. Women and Buddhist Philosophy Jin Y.

Park, 2017-02-28 Why and how do women engage with Buddhism and philosophy? The present volume aims to answer these questions by examining the life and philosophy of a Korean Zen Buddhist nun Kim Iry-p (1896-1971). The daughter of a pastor, Iry-p began questioning Christian doctrine as a teenager. In a few years she became increasingly involved in women's movements in Korea, speaking against society's control of female sexuality and demanding sexual freedom and free divorce for women. While in her late twenties an existential turn in her thinking led Iry-p to Buddhism; she eventually joined a monastery and went on to become a leading figure in the female monastic community until her death. After taking the tonsure, Iry-p followed the advice of her teacher and stopped publishing for more than two decades. She returned to the world of letters in her sixties, using her strong distinctive voice to address fundamental questions on the scope of identity, the meaning of being human, and the value of existence. In her writing, she frequently adopted an autobiographical style that combined her experiences with Buddhist teachings. Through a close analysis of Iry-p's story, Buddhist philosophy and practice in connection with East Asian new women's movements and continental philosophy, this volume offers a creative interpretation of Buddhism as both a philosophy and a religion actively engaged with lives as they are lived. It presents a fascinating narrative on how women connect with the world, whether through social issues such as gender inequality, a Buddhist worldview, or existential debates on human existence, and provides readers with a new way of philosophizing that is transformative and deeply connected with everyday life. Women and Buddhist Philosophy: Engaging Zen Master Kim Iry-p will be of primary interest to scholars and students of Buddhism, Buddhist and comparative philosophy, and gender and Korean studies. *Φιλανθρωπια, or the Transcendancy of Christ's love towards the children of men ... Sumner Charles Sumner, 2020-09-28 The speeches of Charles Sumner have many titles to endure in the memory of mankind They contain the reasons on which the American people acted in taking the successive steps in the revolution which overthrew slavery and made of a race of slaves freemen citizens voters They have a high place in literature They are not only full of historical learning set forth in an attractive way but each of the more important of them was itself an historical event They afford a picture of a noble public character They are an example of the application of the loftiest morality to the conduct of the State They are an arsenal of weapons ready for the friends of Freedom in all the great battles when she may be in peril hereafter They will not be forgotten unless the world shall attain to such height of virtue that no stimulant to virtue shall be needed or to a depth of baseness from which no stimulant can arouse it Mr Sumner held the office of Justice of the Peace and that of Commissioner of the Circuit Court to which he was appointed by his friend and teacher Judge Story He was a member of the convention held in 1853 to revise the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts With these exceptions his only official service was as Senator in Congress from Massachusetts from the 4th of March 1851 when he was just past forty years of age until his death March 9 1874 If his career could have been predicted in his earliest childhood he could have had no better training for his great duties than that he in fact received He was one of the best scholars in the public Latin School in Boston He received the Franklin medal from the hands of Daniel Webster who told him that the state had a pledge of him His school life was followed by four years in Harvard College and a course at the Harvard Law School where he was the favorite pupil of Judge Story He was an eager student of the Greek and Roman classics But his special delight was in history and international law After his admission to the bar he was reporter of the decisions of his beloved master and edited twenty volumes of the equity reports of Vesey Jr which he enriched with copious and learned notes A little later when he was twenty six years old he spent a month in Washington tarrying a short time in New York on his way In that brief period he made life long friendships with some famous men including Chancellor Kent Judge Marshall and Francis Lieber He had a rare gift for making friendships with men especially with great men and with women With him in those days an acquaintance with any person worth knowing soon ripened into an indissoluble friendship A few years later he spent a little more than two years in Europe coming home when he was just past twenty nine years old That time was spent in attending courts lectures of eminent professors and in society No house which he desired to enter seems to have been closed to him Statesmen judges scholars beautiful women leaders of fashionable society welcomed to the closest intimacy this young American of humble birth with no passport other than his own character and attainment It is hardly too much to say that the youth of twenty nine had a larger and more brilliant circle of friendship than any other man on either continent The list of his friends and correspondents would fill many pages He says in a letter to Judge Story what would seem like boasting in other men but with him was modest and far within the truth I have a thousand things to say to you about the law circuit life and the English judges I have seen more of all than probably ever fell to the lot of a foreigner I have had the friendship and confidence of judges and of the leaders of the bar Not a day passes without my being five or six hours in company with men of this stamp My tour is no vulgar holiday affair merely to spend money and to get the fashions It is to see men institutions and laws and if it would not seem vain in me I would venture to say that I have not discredited my country I have called the attention of the judges and the profession to the state of the law in our country and have shown them by my conversation I will say this that I understand their jurisprudence The Collected Works of Witness Lee, 1955, volume 1 Witness Lee, From January until March 1955 Brother Witness Lee remained in Taipei Taiwan to continue a series of Bible studies that he began the previous year These studies were on the books of the New Testament from Matthew through Revelation They are included in volume 1 of this set After he completed this series he traveled to the Philippines where he remained until August There he conducted another Bible study on the books from Matthew through Acts and gave messages on several chapters of 1 and 2 Peter He also gave messages on a number of topics including how to be useful to the Lord the living and principles of the kingdom people reward and punishment the way for a Christian to mature in life and the central work of God and the proper spiritual experiences These messages are included in volumes 2 and 3 of this set In September he traveled to Hong Kong and remained there until the end of December During this time he conducted another Bible study on the New Testament from Romans through Colossians perhaps as a continuation of the Bible study that he had conducted in the Philippines He also gave a series of messages on the mingling of God and man and the principle of resurrection another series of further talks on
