Threshold Concepts In Womens And Gender Studies By Routledge:

Threshold Concepts in Women's and Gender Studies Christie Launius, Holly Hassel, 2014-12-17 Threshold Concepts in Women's and Gender Studies Ways of Seeing Thinking and Knowing is a textbook designed primarily for introduction to Women's and Gender Studies courses with the intent of providing both a skills and concept based foundation in the field. The text is driven by a single key question: What are the ways of thinking, seeing and knowing that characterize women's and gender studies and are valued by its practitioners? Rather than taking a topical approach, Threshold Concepts in Women's and Gender Studies develops the key concepts and ways of thinking that students need in order to develop a deep understanding and to approach material like feminist scholars do across disciplines. This book illustrates four of the most critical concepts in women's and gender studies: the social construction of gender, privilege and oppression, intersectionality and feminist praxis, and grounds these concepts in multiple illustrations.

A Guide to Teaching Introductory Women's and Gender Studies Holly Hassel, Christie Launius, Susan Rensing, 2021-05-10 This book provides a practical, evidence-based guide to teaching introductory Women's and Gender Studies courses. Based on the findings of a Scholarship of Teaching and Learning project that analyzed 72 Intro students' written work, the authors equip instructors with key principles that can help them adapt their pedagogy to a range of classroom environments. The book also draws on the authors' combined decades of teaching experience and aims to help instructors anticipate the emotional, intellectual and interpersonal challenges and rewards of teaching and learning in the introductory WGS course. Chapters focus on course design, including identifying desired learning outcomes in terms of course content, skills and dispositions or habits of mind, choosing course materials, pedagogical activities and assessing student learning.
