Congress. Senate. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on HUD-Independent Agencies,1986 Self Observation Red Hawl,2012-07-23 This book is an in depth examination of the much needed process of self study known as self observation We live in an age where the attention function in the brain has been badly damaged by TV and computers up to 90 percent of the public under age 35 suffers from attention deficit disorder This book offers the most direct non pharmaceutical means of healing attention dysfunction The methods presented here are capable of restoring attention to a fully functional and powerful tool for success in life and relationships This is also an age when humanity has lost its connection with conscience When humanity has poisoned the Earth s atmosphere water air and soil when cancer is in epidemic proportions and is mainly an environmental illness the author asks What is the root cause And he boldly answers Failure to develop conscience Selfobservation he asserts is the most ancient scientific and proven means to develop this crucial inner guide to awakening and a moral life This book is for the lay reader both the beginner and the advanced student of self observation No other book on the market examines this practice in such detail There are hundreds of books on self help and meditation but almost none on self study via self observation and none with the depth of analysis wealth of explication and richness of experience which this book offers Red Hawk author of 5 collections of poetry was the Hodder Fellow at Princeton University 1992 93 and is currently a full professor at the University of Arkansas Monticello He has practiced self observation for over 30 years under the guidance of the Gurdjieff Society of Arkansas meditation master Osho Rajneesh and spiritual teacher Lee Lozowick
