of the Railway and its successive private LNER and public BR ownerships through war and peace and times of industrial social and political change that influenced and shaped the demand for a railway service While retaining a strong railway theme throughout the book identifies the role played by successive governments the electricity and coal industries and the effect of social change that together resulted in a case for closure The content of the book replaces much supposition with fact and places on record what really happened The final part of the book acknowledges the fine work over half a century of volunteers dedicated to saving a section of the line in Leicestershire A valuable addition to the social and political history of railways The Railway Correspondence and Travel Society The Shakespeare Myth Graham Holderness, 1988 Q Is the Shakespeare connection a a family tree b a drug racket c a railway journey A It is all three From the Carling Black Label television advertisement to the design of the 20 note from Tony Hancock and Edna Everage to the Stratford Memorial Theatre from O level exam question to Zeffirelli on the big screen Shakespeare has permeated English life like no one before or since The plays and their legendary author function and flourish in more varied and diverse forms than are usually reckoned Through post structuralist linguistics historiographical research psychoanalytic theories and feminist sexual politics radical criticism exposes the existence of a culturally produced and historically determined Shakespeare myth This anthology of specifically commissioned essays and interviews directly addresses that myth as it works through ideology popular culture sexual politics and the institutions of theatre education and broadcasting It demonstrates how the Shakespeare myth functions in contemporary culture as an ideological framework for containing consensus and for sustaining delusions of unity integration and harmony in the cultural superstructures of a divided and fractured society For every particular present Shakespeare is here now always what is currently being made of him to disclose the process of that making is the object of The Shakespeare myth Back cover
