MARYMOUNT INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

The Principal of Marymount International, Distinguished teachers,
Parents, Relatives and Friends of the Graduates,
Our Distinguished Graduates of 2009,
Ladies and Gentlemen,

I feel honoured to be here to celebrate the graduation of all of the brilliant young ladies, the future leaders of the world. To be frank, I am very nervous for two reasons; first, although I give speeches around the world as part of my work, it is the first time that I address a high school graduating class. Second, and more importantly, I am nervous because, my daughter Binta (Ms. B, as I call her), is part of this graduating class (and she has warned me not to give one of my long boring diplomatic speeches).

First of all, on behalf of all parents, I want to thank all of you the great teachers and boarding supervisors for taking care of our girls, and for molding them into professional young ladies. It is not easy to manage teenagers (I know because I was a teacher before).

To you our graduates, you have to enjoy this moment and this great day as you march on to become adults; dream great dreams about life in the universities you will be attending in a few months; aspire to own your own driving license; maybe you might even receive an increase in your allowances; or perhaps start your first summer job. You should cherish this moment and victory, and have fun with your families. Above all, you should
