

WELCOME SPEECH

Distinguished guests,
Ladies and Gentlemen,

Let me to extend a sincere welcome to the India IT Show 2015, an international business networking event. This event, that brings together Policymakers, Government officials, Corporate Leaders and Academia Members from all over the world, is an excellent opportunity to discuss emerging issues on ICTs, exchange views on existing challenges and further development perspectives in a global technological market as well as to get acquainted with the latest ICT products and solutions.

I want to take this opportunity to inform you that ICT sector in Armenia has recorded significant progress in the recent decades. The Government of Armenia has acknowledged that the development of ICT is the key factor for increasing country competitiveness and productivity and to create a knowledge economy. Today ICT sector is one of the most developed sectors of Armenian economy, and Armenian Government, jointly with private sector, continues its efforts towards further development of this sector in Armenia. Armenian ICT sector doesn't miss out from the development trends of global economy, and our ICT companies continue providing modern, complete and complex solutions for global markets.

The availability of high-qualified ICT workforce in Armenia stimulated a number of multinational companies to open their branches in Armenia and actively cooperate with us in this sphere. Among them are such companies as Microsoft, VM Ware, Synopsys, Mentor Graphics, D-Link, IBM, Oracle, National Instruments etc. At the same time, we have several companies, such as Monitis Armenia, PicsArt, etc., which successfully present their solutions in global markets and involve large foreign investments.

Proceedings of the 2nd International Student Conference on Linguistics (ISCL 2022) Mirsa Umiyati,I Nyoman Kardana,Aron Meko Mbete,I Gusti Made Sutjaja,Dewa Komang Tantra,Nyoman Sujaya,Ni Wayan Kasni,I Wayan Budiarta,Rika Purnama Sari,2023-03-02 This is an open access book Linguistics as a field of study discussing languages plays a fundamental role in the life of humans It affects the human way of thinking in various aspects In turn there is a pervasive influence of language on our daily lives The impact is that the work of linguists is no longer only managing language in one discipline but relating and interconnecting the linguistics with other fields at a further level Linguistic studies have now been carried out in various fields including psychology anthropology neuroscience law philosophy computer science communications and education Linguistics enthusiasts find practical solutions for their linguistic training in the computer law and forensic industries teaching foreign languages and English as a second language translation and interpretation speech pathology lexicography and policymaking in government and education Nowadays these jobs are however no longer operational but encounter many challenges especially in the global era The digital revolution has created new avenues for language use and new communication modalities The existence of technology mediates our linguistic and social interactions The pervasive influence of technology on human development has the potential to influence language acquisition and change social behavior In this global era many challenges in human life arise Our brave new digital world has caused some discord for language activists and if harsh text speakers do not feel good woe ensues our

new diet of round shaped emojis Our language and our relationship to language have developed to keep pace with cultural changes Furthermore since the spread of the COVID 19 pandemic society has been carrying out communication online through the internet and social To society has been accustomed to doing it that way One of the challenges linguistics studies are facing is the implementation of appropriate language capacity There are conditions for the use of inaccurate languages according to standardized rules in communication through online media To solve this reciprocal interactions are also important for creating a pool of different perspectives among the smart human community In total digital technologies are also changing the ways we learn and teach as well as the ways we compose and research These changes are occurring throughout the academy including the humanities a set of disciplines less associated with technology In an effort to vanquish the challenges trending in the linguistic study in order to depict the future perspectives on it established in the description above fresh ideas from the younger generations are needed For that purpose the Graduate School of Linguistics the Postgraduate Program University of Warmadewa in collaboration with other institutes presents an international academic discussion forum in the form of a conference This event is themed The 2nd Student Conference on Linguistics Trends and Future Perspectives in Language study and Language Teaching Through the forum students from various parts of the world are expected to share bright and innovative ideas to discover solutions to the problems and challenges faced by linguistics today and in the coming future International Student Engagement Chris R. Glass, Rachawan Wongtrirat, Stephanie Buus, 2023-07-03 This book responds to the growing calls among international educators activists and students themselves to pay closer attention to the qualitative dimensions of international students experiences at U S colleges and universities This book outlines deep approaches to the academic and social integration of international students at U S colleges and universities It describes concrete examples of strategies to enhance the international student experience across a wide range of institutional types and explores actions that have enabled colleges and universities to create more inclusive connected and purposeful campus environments for international students It fleshes out the effects of these actions through the first person narratives of international students themselves It focuses on reinforcing an institution s existing strengths and capacities to help academic leaders at these institutions to develop comprehensive strategies that will enable the creation of inclusive campus climates for international students The book combines evidence derived from the national Global Perspective Inventory dataset the experiences of institutions at the forefront in developing effective strategies as well as first person narrative experiences of international students to illustrate the real life consequences of institutional policies practice and programs One of the aims of this book is to take readers on a journey from community colleges to liberal arts institutions to large public flagship research universities from rural parts of the U S to highly populated urban areas in order to raise questions about the impact of the surge of international students in these environments and about the corresponding challenges that confront senior administrators seeking to strengthen and deepen connections for the students The book explores some of the actions that universities and colleges across the U S have taken to create more inclusive connected and purposeful campus environments for their international students placing particular emphasis on the importance of tapping and reinforcing each institution s existing strengths and capacities in the development of strategies that will enable it to create more inclusive campus climates for current and incoming international students and engaging in active collaboration with all departments and offices across the campus with the larger community and most important with the international student community itself Grammar and Beyond Level 1 Student's Book Randi Reppen, Deborah Gordon, 2012-01-23

International Students 1860-2010 Hilary Perraton, 2020-09-27 This book describes how the number of international students has grown in 150 years from 60 000 to nearly 4 million It examines the policies adopted towards them by institutions and governments round the world exploring who travelled why and who paid for them In 1860 most international students travelled within Europe by 2010 the largest numbers were from Asia Foreign students have shaped the universities where they studied been shaped by them and gone on to change their own lives and societies Policies for student mobility developed as a function of student demand and of institutional or national interest At different times they were influenced by the needs of empire by the cold war by governments search for soft power by labour markets and by the contribution students made to university finance Along with university students others travelled abroad to study trainee nurses military officers the most deprived and the most privileged schoolchildren All their stories are a vital part of the world's history of education and of its broader social and political history

Dialogue With Bakhtin on Second and Foreign Language Learning Joan Kelly Hall, Gergana Vitanova, Ludmila A. Marchenkova, 2004-12-13 This volume is the first to explore links between the Russian linguist Mikhail Bakhtin's theoretical insights about language and practical concerns with second and foreign language learning and teaching Situated within a strong conceptual framework and drawing from a rich empirical base it reflects recent scholarship in applied linguistics that has begun to move away from formalist views of language as universal autonomous linguistic systems and toward an understanding of language as dynamic collections of cultural resources According to Bakhtin the study of language is concerned with the dialogue existing between linguistic elements and the uses to which they are put in response to the conditions of the moment Such a view of language has significant implications for current understandings of second and foreign language learning The contributors draw on some of Bakhtin s more significant concepts such as dialogue utterance heteroglossia voice and addressivity to examine real world contexts of language learning The chapters address a range of contexts including elementary and university level English as a second language and foreign language classrooms and adult learning situations outside the formal classroom The text is arranged in two parts Part I Contexts of Language Learning and Teaching contains seven chapters that report on investigations into specific contexts of language learning and teaching The chapters in Part II Implications for Theory and Practice present broader discussions on second and foreign language learning using Bakhtin s ideas as a springboard for thinking This is a groundbreaking volume for scholars in applied linguistics language education and language studies with an interest in second and foreign language learning for teacher educators and for teachers of languages from elementary to university levels It is highly relevant as a text for graduate level courses in applied linguistics and second and foreign language education

Unintended Consequences Marianne Dickie, Dorota Gozdecka, Sudrishti Reich, 2016-08-23 This book arose from an inaugural conference on Migration Law and Policy at the ANU College of Law The conference brought together academics and practitioners from a diverse range of disciplines and practice The book is based on a selection of the papers and presentations given during that conference Each explores the unexpected unwanted and sometimes tragic outcomes of migration law and policy identifying ambiguities uncertainties and omissions affecting both temporary and permanent migrants Together the papers present a myriad of perspectives providing a sense of urgency that focuses on the immediate and political consequences of an Australian migration milieu created without due consideration and exposing the daily reality under the migration program for individuals and for society as a whole
