Fact-Finding without Facts Nancy A. Combs, 2010-07-30 Fact Finding Without Facts explores international criminal fact finding empirically conceptually and normatively After reviewing thousands of pages of transcripts from various international criminal tribunals the author reveals that international criminal trials are beset by numerous and severe fact finding impediments that substantially impair the tribunals ability to determine who did what to whom These fact finding impediments have heretofore received virtually no publicity let alone scholarly treatment and they are deeply troubling not only because they raise grave concerns about the accuracy of the judgments currently being issued but because they can be expected to similarly impair the next generation of international trials that will be held at the International Criminal Court After setting forth her empirical findings the author considers their conceptual and normative implications The author concludes that international criminal tribunals purport a fact finding competence that they do not possess and as a consequence base their judgments on a less precise more amorphous method of fact finding than they publicly acknowledge

Phenomenology and Logic Bernard Lonergan, 2001-12-22 Collected here for the first time this series of lectures delivered by Lonergan at Boston College in 1957 illustrates a pivotal time in Lonergan s intellectual history marking both the transition from the faculty psychology still present in his work Insight to intentionality analysis and his initial differentiation of the existential level of consciousness The lectures on logic deal with the general character of mathematical logic and its relation to truth Scholasticism and Aristotelian logic Continuing Lonergan's long standing interest in the foundations of thought the lectures on existentialism offer a penetrating account of Husserl and his influence They also deal with Jaspers Heidegger Sartre and Marcel They offer reflections on such topics as being oneself dread horizon and the existential gap Perhaps more dramatically than in any other work these papers reveal Lonergan's dual commitment to the rigor of scientific analysis in the field of mathematical logic and to the sensitivity of continental philosophies to existential issues Perspective ,1995

Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1973 Rethinking Galatians Peter Oakes,Andrew K. Boakye,2021-01-14 Oakes and Boakye rethink Galatians by examining the text as a vision for the lives of its hearers They show how in tackling the difficulties that he faces in Galatia Paul offers a vision of what the Galatians are in their relationship with the living Christ This offers a new understanding of the concept of unity in diversity expressed in Gal 3 28 The authors develop their views over six chapters First Oakes maps a route from the letter to a focus on its Galatian hearers and on Paul's vision for their identity and existence In the next chapter Oakes uses the Christology of Galatians as a way to support the idea of pistis as current relationship with the living Christ Boakye then offers three chapters analysing the letter's scriptural quotations and ideas about salvation and law Boakye sees a key dynamic at work in Galatians as being a movement from death to life as prophesied metaphorically by Ezekiel and as made literal for Paul in his encounter with the resurrected Christ trust in whom becomes the route to life Life becomes a key category for evaluating law Boakye also draws Galatians close to Romans 4 in seeing in both texts the promise of the birth of Isaac with Paul closely tying that to the resurrection of Jesus Oakes then argues that the letter has a thematic concern for unity in diversity In the first instance this is between Jews and gentiles but in principle it is between any other socially significant pair of groups Resources in Education ,1993 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1998 British Books in Print ,1971 Index to IEEE Publications Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers,1996 Issues for 1973 cover the entire IEEE technical literature Practical Engineer ,1895 Math Advantage Grace M.
