A Lover's Quarrel Joe R. Jones, 2014-01-07 Joe Jones a retired and well known systematic theologian confesses he has a lover's quarrel with the church In wide ranging writings mostly dating since 2006 he forthrightly argues for a theologically sound understanding of the church And he pursues a multi faceted critique of the feckless ways in which actual churches ministers and laity balk and betray their rightful calling to witness in word and deed to God He is especially critical of the practical ways in which congregations become no more than mirror images of their sociopolitical milieu whether to the right or to the left Hence the quarrel trenchantly pursued in major essays blogs and spiritual reflections on his own past But it remains crystal clear to Jones in his learned and profound confession that it is his beloved church with which he quarrels and about which he still has extravagant hopes A Lover's Quarrel is a book appropriate for ministers and laity students and professors and learned skeptics

Transforming Congregations through Community Boyung Lee, 2013-11-04 In this helpful book Boyung Lee offers an encouraging vision of the mainline church s future Lee grapples with some of the greatest challenges facing the mainline church offering compelling responses to recurring questions What does faithfulness to the gospel look like in this changing world What is our distinctive voice in the larger society How does theological education have to change if it is to serve the needs of a new century Lee argues that the church s future is a promising one if the church can offer a richer and deeper definition of community one that moves beyond the excessive individualism of western culture and that helps mainline Christians understand their solidarity with one another and with all of God's people Lee further explores the crucial role of faith formation at the congregational and seminary levels More than mere schooling theological education must engage all aspects of educators and students lives to prepare seminarians for the challenges that lie ahead While not dismissing the mainline church's challenges Lee offers congregational leaders and seminary educators a vision of a church transformed for the 21st century

Homosexuality, Science, and the "plain Sense" of Scripture David L. Balch, 2000

Homosexuality is arguably the most hotly contested topic in the church today Taking up the issue from both poles of the discussion this volume by eleven biblical scholars psychologists and theologians canvasses the debate over the meaning of the scriptural passages on homosexuality from Genesis Leviticus Romans and 1 Corinthians in light of contemporary scientific and exegetical evidence Contributors David L Balch Phyllis A Bird Nancy J Duff David E Fredrickson Kathryn Green McCreight Christine E Gudorf Robert Jewett Stanton L Jones William R Schoedel Christopher Seitz Mark G Toulouse Mark A Yarhouse

Rumors of Religion: America as a Mission Field, Wrestling With God Lloyd Geering, 2015-12-23

Wrestling With God tells the story of the man who came to personify New Zealand's debates over the role and meaning of religious belief in increasingly secular age In the public eye ever since his famed heresy trial in 1967 Lloyd Geering describes his journey from a Depression era childhood through working as a young Presbyterian minister to becoming Victoria University's foundation professor of religious studies and a bestselling author Showing the rigorous commitment to truth and concern for others that have characterised his work Geering also sets out his views on the spiritual life of Western culture in the early twentieth first century and the centrality of the human relationship with an endangered planet

No Box Seats in the Kingdom William G. Carter, 1996

Drawing upon a number of scripture texts from the gospel of Mark this collection of sermons speaks about many challenges on the road to Christian maturity The call of the gospel is given to all who find themselves in sticky human circumstances whether they are troubled by relationships tainted by affluence tired of the career ladder traumatized by persecution or threatened by death When people enter into a community of faith it may take a while for them to grow into mature membership within God's family They may need to be weaned from selfish actions stingy habits and resentful attitudes This book addresses those challenges in such chapters as Invitation to Community Love and Money What to Say When You Roll Out of Bed Something to Do While the World Falls Apart There is an air of unpredictability about William Carter's sermons Enjoy their humor their joyful interplay of the biblical and the contemporary their delightful poetic cadences
