Resources in Education ,1996      Innovative Applications of Educational Technology Tools in Teaching and Learning Blessing Foluso Adeoye Ph.D.,2015-10-07 In this digital age technology has become a very vital factor of development in all disciplines Every day new software devices and other technologies are being developed to improve lives in one way or another Technology in its broadest terms could include the collection of tools machinery devices modifications arrangements and procedures used by humans However in the context of Educational Technology as presented in this book it is understood as technologies that have arrived with the Information Revolution i.e. those associated with computers and Information Communication Technology. Examples of such technologies are electronics devices, computer, video, collaborative writing tools, social networking and the Internet. Innovative applications of technology in the classroom mean more than teaching basic computer skills and software programs in the class. It must happen across the disciplines and curriculum in ways that teaching and learning processes can be enhanced. It must also support active engagement, group participation, local and global collaboration and interaction. This book presents innovative applications of educational technology tools in teaching and learning across various disciplines.

The Report: Brunei Darussalam 2013, 2013 UNRWA and Palestinian Refugees Sari Hanafi, Leila Hilal, Lex Takkenberg, 2014-04-24 Exploring the evolution of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East UNRWA, this book fills a lacuna in literature on the agency. UNRWA and Palestinian Refugees employs recent fieldwork in order to analyse challenges in programmes and service delivery, protection, camp governance, community participation and camp improvement and reconstruction. The chapters examine the way UNRWA is adapting to a changing social, political and economic context, mostly within urban settings, a paradigmatic shift from understanding the Agency's role as simply a provider of relief and services to one comprehensively supporting the human development of Palestinian refugees. Examining the refugee debate using new disciplines and research frameworks, this collection aims to emphasise the centrality of the Palestinian refugee issue for Middle East peace making and to contribute a better understanding of a unique agency. This book will be a useful aid for students and researchers with an interest in Middle East Studies, Politics and the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.
