Library, 1875 Includes titles on all subjects some in foreign languages later incorporated into Memorial Library Catalogue of the library of the State historical society of Wisconsin, by D.S. and I. Durrie Daniel Steele Durrie, 1875 Organizing the Green World: A Conceptual History of Botanical Classification Tod F. Stuessy, 2025-09-02 This book focuses on plant systematics and evolution with special interest on the history and philosophy of botanical classification Tracing the history of how humans have dealt with ordering the plant world is very much a glimpse of how human culture and science have progressed over the past 2000 years The objective in this book is to present ideas on plant classification beginning with classical Greek and Roman scholars through the Middle Ages into the Renaissance and finally to the modern 21st century Significant quantitative methods in classification have originated within the past 70 years which have never before been integrated with previous historical perspectives Most textbooks of systematic botany contain an historical introduction or perhaps a chapter on the history of classification but this book presents much greater detail on the classifications themselves and the cultural dimensions of the different time periods Biographical detail is also provided to give a better appreciation of the individual botanists who have contributed new ideas in the search for maximally predictive systems Catalogue de la Bibliothèque de la Cour Suprême Et de la Cour de L'Échiquier Du Canada, 1897 Canada. State Library, Jackson, 1877 The Myth of Paganism Robert Shorrock, 2013-10-16 Traditional and still prevalent accounts of late antique literature draw a clear distinction between pagan and Christian forms of poetry whereas Christian poetry is taken seriously in terms its contribution to culture and society at large so called pagan or secular poetry is largely ignored as though it has no meaningful part to play within the late antique world The Myth of Paganism sets out to deconstruct this view of two contrasting poetic traditions and proposes in its place a new integrated model for the understanding of late antique poetry As the book argues the poet of Christ and the poet of the Muses were drawn together into an active often provocative dialogue about the relationship between Christianity and the Classical tradition and ultimately about the meaning of late antiquity itself An analysis of the poetry of Nonnus of Panopolis author of both a pagan epic about Dionysus and a Christian translation of St John s Gospel helps to illustrate this complex dialectic between pagan and Christian voices Critical Readings on Piaget Leslie Smith,2002-09-26 First published in 1996 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company
