The Complete Aeschylus : Volume II: Persians and Other Plays Aeschylus, Peter Burian Professor of Classical and Comparative Literature and Theater Studies Duke University, Chapel Hill Alan Shapiro Distinguished Professor of English and Creative Writing University of North Carolina, 2009-02-17 Based on the conviction that only translators who write poetry themselves can properly re create the celebrated and timeless tragedies of Aeschylus Sophocles and Euripides the Greek Tragedy in New Translations series offers new translations that go beyond the literal meaning of the Greek in order to evoke the poetry of the originals The volume brings together four major works by one of the great classical dramatists Prometheus Bound translated by James Scully and C John Herrington a haunting depiction of the most famous of Olympian punishments The Suppliants translated by Peter Burian an extraordinary drama of flight and rescue arising from women's resistance to marriage Persians translated by Janet Lembke and C John Herrington a masterful telling of the Persian Wars from the view of the defeated and Seven Against Thebes translated by Anthony Hecht and Helen Bacon a richly symbolic play about the feuding sons of Oedipus These four tragedies were originally available as single volumes This new volume retains the informative introductions and explanatory notes of the original editions and adds a single combined glossary and Greek line numbers

The Experiment Barbara Vroman, 2005-09 So it was that each participant of the Experiment found a vision and was soon immersed with high excitement in making it come true And ironically Hinder who was to have been the spoiler became instead the enabler Then there occurred an event that was to challenge not only the Experiment group but the whole nation The time had come for a man named Abu Kalide Al Mussada to accomplish a vision of a very different sort Abu Kalide and eight of his followers infiltrated across the border between Mexico and America in the early hours of the sixteenth day of September At ten o'clock that morning they took possession of a nursery school in Casa de Luna New Mexico As Abu Kalide had planned the headlines and airways screamed the news The President promised that action would be taken immediately but it would not be precipitate Every care would be taken not to move so rapidly it would be heedless The threat would be met without excessive haste or impulse The safety of the children would be the foremost consideration And to each of the eight participants in the Experiment a familiar green sheet appeared in their mail An emergency meeting was called The black bus would come for them

Sexual Abuse of Young Children in Southern Africa Human Sciences Research Council, 2004 With contributions from leading legal and policy researchers clinical practitioners and child development specialists in southern Africa this volume is an invitation to reflect on the many sided nature of sexual abuse of young children Many of the contributors propose effective ways to prevent abuse or improve care and services for the many affected children and their families The book is in five parts The opening section confronts the realities of sexual abuse of pre pubertal children and the way abuse is represented in the press The second section discusses the individual and socio cultural causes of child sexual abuse Section three covers legal and policy responses to the problem while the fourth section presents a series of accounts of interventions on behalf of abused children drawn from South Africa Mozambique and Zimbabwe The book concludes with some critical reflections on research in this area

Religions, Mumbai Style Michael Stausberg, 2025-05-16 Mumbai is generally recognized as an environment of extraordinary religious diversity The city is known at one and the same time for a habitual cosmopolitanism and a series of violent religion related conflicts and clashes While there is much academic scholarship on various aspects of urban history and realities this volume is the first international academic publication focusing on religion s in Mumbai An extended introductory essay provides a scenario of the religious history of the city from the earliest colonial periods to the present it also discusses such topics as public celebration and landmark religious places By taking a thematic approach the contributions highlight the dynamics of religious life in the city Chapters discuss spatial settings such as so called slums Dharavi and ghettos Mumbra but also roadside shrines and taxis Other chapters focus on class and civil society organizations Contributions discuss the crossing of religious boundaries e g in dealing with intermarriage and conversion and challenges faced by religious groups as to how to reconcile the religious diversity of the city with their own desire for recognition Lines of tension and conflict often run within and not so much between communities The two final chapters of the volume address the reflection of religion in fiction set in Mumbai and in the work of the Bombay poet Arun Kolatkar Exploring Anne Frank and Difficult Life Stories Kirsten Kumpf Baele, Waltraud Maierhofer, Doyle Stevick, 2024-09-19 This volume grounded in the Diary of a Young Girl and its continued appeal to readers of all ages sees both promise in the relevance of Anne Frank's story in the twenty first century and potential for new ways of teaching her story and those of other genocides and human right violations Engaging Anne Frank with these other cases clarifies the distinct nature of the Holocaust and we build on the fact that the diary touches areas of deep interest especially to young people and that it has been read as a monument to resisting hate which is itself a prerequisite for educating citizens of more diverse and inclusive societies The diverse contributions and viewpoints in this volume illustrate how rich the ongoing engagement with Anne Frank and her legacy remain The Scot in British North America William Jordan Rattray, 1880 "Making a Way Out of No Way" Wolfgang Mieder, 2010 In barely forty years of life Martin Luther King 1929-1968 distinguished himself as one of the greatest social reformers of modern times civil rights leader defender of nonviolence in the struggle of desegregation champion of the poor anti war proponent and broad minded visionary of an interrelated world of free people His many verbal and written communications in the form of sermons speeches interviews letters essays and several books are replete with Bible proverbs as Love your enemies He who lives by the sword shall perish by the sword and Man does not live by bread alone as well as folk proverbs as Time and tide wait for no man Last hired first fired No gain without pain and Making a way out of no way He also delighted in citing quotations that have become proverbs to wit No man is an island All men are created equal and No lie can live forever King recycles these bits of traditional wisdom in various contexts varying his proverbial messages as he addresses the multifaceted issues of civil rights His rhetorical prowess is thus informed to a considerable degree by his effective use of his repertoire of proverbs which he frequently uses as leitmotifs or amasses into set pieces of fixed phrases to be employed repeatedly The Sociology of Terrorism Michael Blain, 2009 This book is a compilation of previously published studies on the role of culture and language in political violence and terrorism These studies have contributed to a paradigmatic shift in sociological thinking about language and culture in politics particularly in regard to the genesis and dynamics of violence and terrorism Blending ideas derived from Michel Foucault and Kenneth Burke this book is unique in its range of focus from detailed studies of specific cases of violence and terrorism to peace movements in resistance of violence war and terrorism Healthy People 2000 Institute of Medicine, 1990-02-01 Works, in an English Translation Anatole France, 1909 Power, Discourse and Victimage Ritual in the War on Terror Michael Blain, 2016-04-08 Blending concepts from dramatism such as victimage ritual with Foucault's approach to modern power and knowledge regimes this book presents a novel and illuminating perspective on political power and domination resulting from the global war on terrorism

With attention to media sources and political discourse within the context of the global war on terror the author draws attention to the manner in which power elites construct scapegoats by way of a victimage ritual thus providing themselves with a political pretext for extending their power and authority over new territories and populations as well as legitimating an intensification of domestic surveillance and social control A compelling analysis of ritual rhetoric and political violence Power Discourse and Victimage Ritual in the War on Terror will be of interest to sociologists political theorists and scholars of media and communication concerned with questions of surveillance and social control political communication hegemony foreign policy and the war on terror

Rage Abigail R. Esman, 2020-10 2022 IPPY Gold Medal in Current Events In the days after 9 11 Abigail R Esman walked the streets of New York haunted by a feeling that was eerily familiar the trauma of violence that hovered in the air Friends family and strangers moved walked even stood as she herself had done earlier as a victim of domestic battery and abuse Since then Esman a journalist who specializes in writing on terrorism and radicalization has studied the connections between domestic abuse and terrorism and the forces that inspire both forms of violence In Rage Narcissism Patriarchy and the Culture of Terrorism Esman brings into focus the complex web that ties them together illuminating the terrorist psyche and the cultures that create it With this new approach to understanding terrorism and violence Esman presents clear explanations of pathological narcissism and its roots in shame honor cultures both familial and sociopolitical through portraits of terrorists and batterers including O J Simpson Osama bin Laden Anders Breivik and Dylann Roof The insights of psychiatrists former white supremacists Islamist terrorists national security experts and others elaborate her thesis while Esman s own experiences with abuse and the aftermath of 9 11 on the streets of New York City further enrich the narrative At a time when so many lives are threatened by public violence and terrorism understanding the forces that incite them has become crucial and finding solutions urgent Esman proposes social and policy initiatives aimed at reducing violence while engendering social equality and enriching women s rights Such proposals she argues are essential to overcoming the cultural and political forces that hinder progress toward security and peace This groundbreaking book sheds new light on the roots of violence and terrorism while advancing proactive measures to protect our values and traditions of justice equality and freedom

The Wolf and the Watchman Niklas Natt och Dag, 2019-10-01 The Alienist set in eighteenth century Stockholm Brawny bloody intricate enthralling and the best historical thriller I ve read in twenty years A J Finn 1 bestselling author of The Woman in the Window Thrilling unnerving clever and beautiful Fredrik Backman 1 bestselling author of A Man Called Ove Chilling and thought provoking Relentless well written and nearly impossible to put down Kirkus Reviews starred review One morning in the autumn of 1793 watchman Mikel Cardell is awakened from his drunken slumber with reports of a body seen floating in the Larder once a pristine lake on Stockholm s Southern Isle now a rancid bog Efforts to identify the bizarrely mutilated corpse are entrusted to incorruptible lawyer Cecil Winge who enlists Cardell s help to solve the case But time is short Winge s health is failing the monarchy is in shambles and whispered conspiracies and paranoia abound Winge and Cardell become immersed in a brutal world of guttersnipes and thieves mercenaries and madams From a farmer s son who is lead down a treacherous path when he seeks his fortune in the capital to an orphan girl consigned to the workhouse by a pitiless parish priest their investigation peels back layer upon layer of the city s labyrinthine society The rich and the poor the pious and the fallen the living and the dead all collide and interconnect with the body pulled from the lake Breathtakingly bold and intricately constructed The Wolf and the Watchman brings to life the crowded streets gilded palaces and dark corners of late eighteenth century Stockholm offering a startling vision of the crimes we commit in the name of justice and the sacrifices we make in order to survive

World Christianity and Interfaith Relations ,2022-10-25 In this landmark volume a rich array of voices make the case that religion is not partitioned off from the secular in the Global South the way it is in the Global North Authors work at the intersections of freedom and Nationalism peace and reconciliation and gender ecology and ethnography to contend that religion is in fact deeply integrated into the lives of those in the Global South even though secularism a political philosophy that requires the state to treat all religions equally predominates in many of the regions World Christianity and Interfaith Relations is part of the multi volume series World Christianity and Public Religion The series seeks to become a platform for intercultural and intergenerational dialogue and to facilitate opportunities for interaction between scholars across the Global South and those in other parts of the world by engaging emerging voices from a variety of indigenous Christianities around the world The focus is not only on particular histories and practices but also on their theological articulations and impact on the broader societies in which they work

Reducing Risks for Mental Disorders Institute of Medicine,Committee on Prevention of Mental Disorders,1994-01-01 The understanding of how to reduce risk factors for mental disorders has expanded remarkably as a result of recent scientific advances This study mandated by Congress reviews those advances in the context of current research and provides a targeted definition of prevention and a conceptual framework that emphasizes risk reduction Highlighting opportunities for and barriers to interventions the book draws on successful models for the prevention of cardiovascular disease injuries and smoking In addition it reviews the risk factors associated with Alzheimer s disease schizophrenia alcohol abuse and dependence depressive disorders and conduct disorders and evaluates current illustrative prevention programs The models and examination provide a framework for the design application and evaluation of interventions intended to prevent mental disorders and the transfer of knowledge about prevention from research to clinical practice The book presents a focused research agenda with recommendations on how to develop effective intervention programs create a cadre of prevention researchers and improve coordination among federal agencies

The Works of Anatole France in an English Translation Anatole France,1909 Animal Studies Paul Waldau,2013-02-11 Animal studies is a growing interdisciplinary field that incorporates scholarship from public policy sociology religion philosophy and many other areas In essence it seeks to understand how humans study and conceive of other than human animals and how these conceptions have changed over time across cultures and across different ways of thinking This interdisciplinary introduction to the field boldly and creatively foregrounds the realities of nonhuman animals as well as the imaginative and ethical faculties that humans must engage to consider our intersection with living beings outside of our species It also compellingly demonstrates that the breadth and depth of thinking and humility needed to grasp the human nonhuman intersection has the potential to expand the dualism that currently divides the sciences and humanities As the first holistic survey of the field Animal Studies is essential reading for any student of human animal relationships and for all people who care about the role nonhuman animals play in our society
