Visitor Guide Carthage Missouri:

Carthage, Missouri Michele Newton Hansford, 2000 Translated as New City Carthage was founded in 1842 as the county seat of Jasper in southwest Missouri The town prospered for two decades until military advances during the Civil War destroyed the entire town and dispersed its population This volume assembled by the Powers Museum offers a pictorial glimpse into the rebuilding and growth of this historic city during its most influential years The citizens of Carthage quickly rebuilt the city during the late 1860s and early 1870s and eventually reclaimed its pre war prominence as an agricultural and trade center located at the edge of the northern prairies and the Ozark foothills When lead zinc and limestone were discovered and developed into prosperous industries families began to arrive from all over to take advantage of the area s economic opportunities Carthage s trademark Victorian architecture still in place today is a result of the economic affluence of the town during this late nineteenth and early twentieth century period

Chase,2012-05-31 Church History Study Guide Pt 3 Latter Day Prophets Since 1844

This volume is the third of three on Church History and the Doctrine and Covenants. It covers Church history during the administration of all of its Prophet-Prophets since Joseph Smith. It begins with the succession of the Apostles after Joseph Smith's martyrdom, the building of the Nauvoo Temple, and the trek to the west of the Latter-day Saint pioneers. We follow them through Iowa, Winter Quarters, and on to Utah. We witness the colonization of the state of Deseret while the rest of the country suffered from Civil War. Then we follow events through the administrations of all of the 19th Century, 20th Century, and 21st Century prophets from John Taylor to Thomas S. Monson. We become familiar with the early lives, missions, marriages, and callings of each of these prophets, seeing how the Lord prepared them for the particular time that they led the Church. We finish with a look toward the future as we await the Second Coming of our Lord. The cover features a beautiful photograph of the Salt Lake Temple taken at dusk during the Christmas season from the roof of the Joseph Smith Memorial Building.
