recipes and recollections so I've put together this darlin' little journal to get me and you started recordin'. I know I never forget a meal, but I also know that Jamie and Bobby aren't always listenin' to what I'm tellin' em. So for you and the boys, I've included some tried and true recipes and some of my hard-learned tricks for gettin' out of culinary scrapes. And Lord, honey, have there been a few! Whether it is a real disaster, the boss and his wife are comin' over, and the kitchen is full of smoke, no shame in servin' some takeout, or just an everyday bump in the road, your husband didn't hear the buzzer and the cake got a little dry in the oven, let some sugar water soak into those layers, and no one will know the difference. I've got your answer: Just get cookin' and let loose. Nothin' makes memories like the smell of home-cooked meals. Jot down your ingredients and your musings, cut out a recipe card or two to share with friends, keep track of who came to dinner, who liked what, and who laughed the loudest, remember the good times, and learn from the bad. Like I always say, there's not much in life you can't learn in the kitchen.

Paula Deen Paula Deen's Kitchen Classics Paula Deen, Southern Plate Christy Jordan, 2024-01-17

My name is Christy Jordan, and I like to feed people. I come from a long line of Southern cooks who taught me home cooking is best, life is good, and there is always something to be grateful for. I created Southern Plate so that I could share the recipes and stories that have been passed down through my family for more than nine generations. You won't find fancy food or new-fangled recipes in this cookbook, just easy, no-fuss Southern favorites such as Chicken and Dumplings, Homemade Banana Pudding, Aunt Looney's Macaroni Salad, Fried Green Tomatoes, and Daddy's Rise and Shine Biscuits. I want to make one thing as clear as possible: How your mama made it is the right way. I'm going to bring it to you, how my mama made it, which is the only right way for me. These stories and recipes come from my heart. They are a gift from my ancestors, but the ability to have them heard is a gift from you. Take a seat at the Southern Plate table, you're with family now.
