Introduction to Education (Minor Course), "Paper Code: EDNMIN-101-4" KHRITISH SWARGIARY, 2025-05-13 As the author of Introduction to Education Minor Course Paper Code EDNMIN 101 4 I am delighted to present this textbook meticulously crafted for students embarking on their B.A. 1st Semester journey at Bodoland University. In an era where education is recognized not merely as the transmission of knowledge but as a transformative force, this book serves as a foundational guide to understanding its intrinsic nature, pervasive functions, and profound impact. My primary objective in authoring this text was to align seamlessly with the course objectives to cultivate a deep understanding of the meaning, aims, objectives, and functions of education, to acquaint learners with the pivotal role of schools within society, and to illuminate various aspects of curriculum, the correlation of studies, and different forms of discipline. Through sixty carefully structured lectures designed to facilitate a comprehensive grasp of the subject, this book endeavours to empower students with the basic aims and fundamental concepts of education, enabling them to apply theoretical knowledge to real-world educational scenarios and develop critical thinking skills essential for evaluating educational policies, practices, and research. It is my sincere hope that this volume will not only serve as a robust academic resource but also ignite a passion for lifelong learning and contribute to the development of enlightened citizens capable of contributing meaningfully to both national progress and international harmony.

Doing Race in Social Studies Prentice T. Chandler, 2015-07-01 Race and racism are a foundational part of the global and American experience. With this idea in mind, our social studies classes should reflect this reality. Social studies educators often have difficulties teaching about race within the context of their classrooms due to a variety of institutional and personal factors. Doing Race in Social Studies: Critical

Perspectives provides teachers at all levels with research in social studies and critical race theory CRT and specific content ideas for how to teach about race within their social studies classes The chapters in this book serve to fill the gap between the theoretical and the practical as well as help teachers come to a better understanding of how teaching social studies from a CRT perspective can be enacted The chapters included in this volume are written by prominent scholars in the field of social studies and CRT They represent an original melding of CRT concepts with considerations of enacted social studies pedagogy This volume addresses a void in the social studies conversation about race how to think and teach about race within the social science disciplines that comprise the social studies Given the original nature of this work Doing Race in Social Studies Critical Perspectives is a much needed addition to the conversation about race and social studies education
