Perspectives on Translation and Interpretation in Cameroon Emmanuel Chia, Joseph Che Suh, Alexandre Ndeffo Tene, 2009 Perspectives on Translation and Interpretation in Cameroon is the first volume of a book series of the Advanced School of Translators and Interpreters ASTI of the University of Buea It opens a window into the wide dynamic and interesting area of translation and interpretation in a multilingual Cameroon that had on the eve of independence and unification opted for official bilingualism in French and English The book comprises contributions from scholars of translation in the broad area of translation comprising the concept of translation and its pedagogy the history of translation and the state of the art of translation as a discipline profession and practice The book also focuses on acquisition of translation competences through training and chronicles the history of translation in Cameroon through the contributions of both Cameroonian and European actors from the German through the French and English colonial periods to the postcolonial present in their minutia Rich original and comprehensive the book is a timely and invaluable contribution to the growing community of translators and interpreters in Africa and globally Cameroon: The Stakes and Challenges of Governance and Development Tangie Nsoh Fonchingong, John Bobuin Gemandze, 2009 This book deals with the important subject of governance and development Even more significantly the book has the merits of critically evaluating the concept of good governance in an African context identifying the internal factors that impinge on good governance and development and proposing solutions It provides empirical evidence on the extent to which inappropriate governing strategies are the main internal obstacle to development in Cameroon The authors discuss factors contributing to precarious and problematic governance from multidisciplinary perspectives and demonstrate the extent to which such inadequacies impede positive social change To promote effective development the authors argue for the implementation of a good governance strategy that comprises inter alia adopting appropriate development strategies decentralizing administration to make for popular participation and ensure accountability taking the necessary steps to fight corruption and ensuring the enforcement of property and cultural rights Laughing Store Linus Tongwo Asong, 2010 Laughing Store is just what we need in times of troubles and uncertainties such as these A book of humour from an acclaimed master of laughter it lifts our hearts and raises our spirits Jokes that touch about every domain of existence from sex to religion from births to deaths from politics to the beer parlour from the courtroom to the hospital And most important of all conceived in the supremely original Cameroonian flavour of jokes The Cameroonian Novel of English Expression. An Introduction S. A. Ambanasom, 2009 In this eclectic and compelling book Ambanasom sets out to achieve three primary objectives to introduce the reader to the extensive body of Cameroonian novels in English to re examine the distorting and limiting criteria upon which the critical assessment of the Cameroonian novel in English has so far been based and to bridge the widening chasm between literary theory and actual critical practice To achieve these objectives Ambanasom begins by elaborating an alternative and flexible theoretical framework which he christens the Socio Artistic Approach and which according to him is concerned with both a text's thematic, moral, cultural or ideological issues on the one hand and its central literary analysis on the other. He then proceeds to use this new critical framework to examine twenty-seven major Cameroonian novels in English. Translators Through History Jean Delisle, Judith Woodsworth, 2012. Acclaimed when it first appeared as a seminal work, a groundbreaking book that was both informative and highly readable, Translators through History is being released in a new edition, substantially revised and expanded by Judith Woodsworth. Translators have played a key role in intellectual exchange through the ages and across borders. This account of how they have contributed to the development of languages, the emergence of literatures, the dissemination of knowledge and the spread of values tells the story of world culture itself. Content has been updated, new elements introduced and recent directions in translation scholarship incorporated, providing fresh insights and a more nuanced view of past events. The bibliography contains over 100 new titles and illustrations have been refreshed and enhanced. An invaluable tool for students, scholars and professionals in the field of translation, the latest version of Translators through History remains a vital resource for researchers in other disciplines and a fascinating read for the wider public.

Homage and Courtship S. A. Ambanasom, 2010. Here is a collection of sixty-two beautifully crafted poems on some of the deepest of human emotions. They celebrate love, constancy, beauty, marriage, birth and death. In the poems are hailed intellectual labour, leadership and duty. Occasionally the poet depicts the states of his mind against the backdrop of nature, interfusing description, memory and meditation in a manner essentially romantic. The best in Ambanasom's poetry is matter and manner combined. The striking force of the poems lies in the intriguing relationship between romanticism and romance. Ambanasom's romanticism is concerned with the concept of nature as a universal being or a cosmic entity, nostalgia, the attempt to link his childhood with the present and the future and the response to nature at different levels of his development. The poet also demonstrates a penchant for rural subject matter, places and people. In the poet of romance, there is a more direct expression of basic human emotions, in particular of love that is enchanting, possessing, seductive and alluring. We find in the poems love that is reciprocal and imbued with constancy and understanding. Gender, Discourse and Power in the Cameroonian Parliament Lilian Lem Atanga, 2010. This book investigates gender and power relations in the Cameroonian parliament using a critical discourse analytical approach which focuses on social issues and seeks to expose unequal relations within institutions. The study identifies different gendered discourses within the speeches of Members of Parliament and government ministers. Consciously or unconsciously, these participants within parliamentary debates draw on topics that construct women and men in specific ways, sometimes sustaining gender stereotypes or challenging existing conditions. The way men and women are constructed using language also is indicative of gender and power relations within this particular community. The study also looks at the way men and women are constructed using traditional discourses of gender differentiation and how some of these discourses get challenged, appropriated or subverted using progressive gendered discourses that advocate equal opportunities gender equality and gender partnership in development The Akroma File Linus Tongwo Asong,2009 Faced with debts at home and threatened by poverty Akroma a brilliant and well educated Ghanaian using unorthodox means successfully gets into Cameroon He is bent on making a fortune Drawing on his tremendous presence of mind and capitalising on the early discovery that in Cameroon there is no conscience that money cannot buy this illegal alien travelling under three criminal identities builds up a great amount of wealth But he cannot buy the entire police force One police man Inspector Kum Dangobert will get even with him even if it means death The rest of this very readable novel is about what happens when the Ghanaian evil genius is pitted against the best Cameroonian police superintendent It is the clash of giants that ends in a cataclysm Translation Flows Ilse Feinauer,Amanda Marais,Marius Swart,2023-10-15 The genesis of this book was the 9th Congress of the European Society for Translation Studies held in Stellenbosch South Africa in September 2019 the first time the event took place outside Europe Living Translation People Processes Products was the Congress theme A common thread whether as a methodological or analytical basis as a descriptive framework or as a subject in itself was that of flows and the flowing nature of translation The contributions included here draw on a productive framework of networks and flows and foreground the inherent spatial and temporal diversity of Translation Studies Translation as a social practice is the golden thread throughout the volume not just translation in the conventional sense between languages and cultures but over artificial borders into new spaces between non traditional agents and actors and through various genres and mediums Chapters are clustered loosely based on the temporality of the topic under discussion Work on and from the Global North constitutes the first section and the second complements this by bringing the Global South into the picture as well This state of the art research will stimulate robust scholarly discussions as we map our way forward as a living discipline Ako-Aya: A Cameroonian Pioneer in Daring Journalism and Social Commentary E. N. Ngwafor,2010 Patrick Tataw Obenson alias Ako Aya the rabid critic social crusader and witty journalist all rolled up in one was indeed a popular and widely admired pioneer in daring journalism and social commentary in Cameroon Little wonder that when he died he left behind countless painful hearts and many questions on the lips of his admirers As a man of the people the fallen hero of Cameroon s Fleet Street shared his experiences be they good or bad with his readers He was a virile critic even of the sordid things in which he himself secretly indulged Obenson s mind was open and through his popular newspaper column Ako Aya he exposed society and social action in all their dimensions He had an axe to grind with all perpetrators of social vices especially those of them that infringed on the rights of the common man He gave them a good fight using his newspaper as his only weapon a weapon which could not be neutralized even by the most affluent nor the most coercive leadership And he did so with nerve and valour and venom Only Tataw Obenson could spit out really scathing pieces of satire aimed directly at the highest governing authorities of his society Only Obenson could make allusions even to his own apparently ugly self Only he could be liberal and honest enough to confess how he boarded a taxi and later bolted without paying the driver Only Obenson was able to foresee his imminent demise from the face of the earth and literarily wrote his own epitaph Stereotyping Africa. Surprising Answers to Surprising Questions Emmanuel Fru Doh,2009 This book deals with an interesting but also painful topic the stereotyping of Africa in the West notably in the United States of America This is a laudable initiative a timely and courageous effort to deal with long standing stereoxypes in the West Dr Piet Konings Sociologist African Studies Centre Leiden Genuine Intellectuals. Academic and Social Responsibilities of Universities in Africa Bernard Nsokika Fonlon,2009 This book slim as it looks took Bernard Nsokika Fonlon the best part of five laborious years to write 1965 9 inclusive He writes I was penning away as students in France were up in arms against the academic Establishment and their fury almost toppled a powerful prestigious political giant like General de Gaulle In America students arms in hand besieged and stormed the buildings of the University Administration others blew up lecture halls in Canada the student revolt a very saeva indignatio was in paroxysm But in England save in the London School of Economics where students rioted for the lame reason that the College gate looked like that of a jail house all was calm Fonlon drew on these events to define the role of university education in this precious treasure of a book which he dedicates to every African freshman and freshwoman The book details his reflections and vision on the scientific and philosophical Nature End and Purpose of university studies He calls on African students to harness the Scientific Method in their quest for Truth and to put the specialised knowledge they acquire to the benefit of the commonwealth first then to themselves To do this effectively universities must jealously protect academic freedom from all non academic interferences For any university that does not teach a student to think critically and in total freedom has taught him or her nothing of genuine worth Universities are and must remain sacred places and spaces for the forging of genuine intellectuals imbued with skills and zeal to assume and promote social responsibilities with self abnegation Salvation Colony Linus Tongwo Asong,2009 Dennis Nunqam Ndendemajem the spectral social misfit of No Way To Die having failed to die by suicide is pursued by the hatred of friends and family relations He seeks refuge in The Salvation Colony of the Angels of Limbo Church of Africa a veritable paradise for all whom society has sidelined and whom chance or choice have led thereto Refuge Dennis finds at the Salvation Colony thanks to the kindly founding spiritual and material patron the highly reputable but extremely devilish Pastor Sixtus Shrapnell fondly referred to as Our Father At the Colony though completely dehumanized Dennis maintains self value and something to live for in life God In dispensing so completely and successfully with any authorial presence in this extremely rare but deeply psychological novel Asong pushes the art of African fiction to a great new height The novel shows his intellectual and perhaps formal vortex His iridescent flushes of exquisite know how in art philosophy and psychology make the work worth a thinker s time Handbook of Translation Studies Yves Gambier,Luc van Doorslaer,2013-12-20 As a meaningful manifestation of how institutionalized the discipline has become the new Handbook of Translation Studies is most welcome It joins the other signs of maturation such as Summer Schools the development of

Chopchair Linus Tongwo Asong, 2010 The extremely irritable and quick tempered chieftain Akendong II has 14 children all girls and is saddened by the fact that he has no chopchair a male heir to his throne Then news comes to him that his favourite wife has given birth to a pair of twins boys He is even more angered by the fact that he has two heirs a source of trouble for his kingdom To avoid his wrath his councillors change the story sending away one of the boys to grow in hiding Learning of the truth about his birth 15 years afterwards the prince in hiding returns kidnaps the palace prince and demands his full share of the kingdom His will is done but at a very great cost to the chief's peace of mind and relationship with his people This is by far the shortest of Asong's novels and the least complicated by comparison But the conflicts the hallmarks of his art are still there so also is his breathtaking suspense

Ecology and Natural Resource Development in the Western Highlands of Cameroon. Issues in Natural Resource Management Cornelius Mbifung Lambi, Emmanuel Neba Ndencho, 2010 The densely populated Bamenda Highlands of Cameroon remains one of the regions with the greatest land degradation problems in the country Factors responsible for this include climate change the hilly nature or topographic layout of the land and human interference through overgrazing destructive agricultural practices and the impact of deforestation This detailed study of resource management and its ecological challenges in the Bamenda Highlands stresses an important link between falling food output and soil deterioration While most areas in this predominantly agricultural region enjoy food abundance the inhabitants of high density infertile rugged mountainous areas are forced to resort to double cropping and intensified land exploitation that leave little room for soil regeneration The population problem in relation to land degradation is infinitely more complicated than the region's sheer ability to produce enough food supply The authors make a strong case for a delicate balance between human agency and environmental protection in this highly populated and physically challenging region where land is a precious resource and land conflicts are common      The Crabs of Bangui Linus Tongwo Asong,2010 Every man lives for himself using his freedoms to attain his personal aims and feels with his whole being that he can at any moment perform or not perform this or that action The higher a man stands in the social scale the more connections he has with others and the more power he has over them the more conspicuous is the predestination and inevitability of every act he commits Upon this philosophy a former banker Hansel Bolingo suddenly finds or makes himself the regional representative of a Chinese firm that deals in crabs in Bangui This catapults him into a position of instant wealth His mouth watering affluence draws immediate attention while his hypnotic powers cause hundreds of not so honest citizens to clamour for shares from which he builds up a huge fortune But he soon discovers that he cannot deceive everybody all the time      Intimate Strangers Francis B. Nyamnjoh,2010 Intimate Strangers tells the story of the everyday tensions of maids and madams in ways that bring together different worlds and explore various dimensions of servitude and mobility Immaculate travels to a foreign land only to find her fianc refusing to marry her Operating from the margins of society through her own ingenuity and an encounter with researcher Dr Winter Bottom Nanny she is able to earn some money Will she remain at the margins or graduate into DUST Diamond University of Science and Technology Immaculate learns how maids struggle to make ends meet and madams wrestle to keep them in their employ Resolved to make her disappointments blessings she perseveres until she can take no more      Osagyefo Linus Tongwo Asong,2010 The personality of the highly charismatic foremost African Nationalist Kwame Nkrumah as featured once in a while in Ghanaian fiction For example the celebrated Ghanaian novelist Ayi Kwei Armah draws attention to the corrupt nature of the Nkrumah regime in his famous novel The Beautiful Ones Are Not Yet Born But this is by far the very first time that Kwame Nkrumah and his era have been made the main subject of a full length novel      The State in Africa Tatah Mentan,2010 Introduction Framing the problem of the state in Africa Historical and theoretical context The state in Africa in an era of capitalist globalization a theoretical exploration Slavery and capitalist globalization Colonial globalization or the extension of European Westphalian state to Africa Decolonizing imperial state in Africa 1945 60 plus a change plus c est la m me chose African developmentalist nationalist state From welfare developmentalist to neo liberal nation state in Africa Neo liberal assault on the state in Africa roots of state weakness failure and collapse The state in Africa and civil society in historical perspective Future of the state in Africa in an era of neoliberal globalization An African state is possible looking back in order to look ahead
