

Persuasive Techniques

Now, think about a novel you recently read.

Create a product related to your novel.

For example, multiple products are made and sold from the Harry Potter novels.

Brainstorm with your group. What could you create from your novel? It could be something mentioned in the novel, or something the main character would have used.

You will need to choose an advertising technique for your product.

Bandwagon A suggestion to follow the crowd.

Everyone is buying it, so you should too.

Remember the ads that show many everyday people using a product?

How can you show people using something?

Students will identify the type of persuasive technique used.

- Identify chosen relates to novel.
- Each Group Member Participates
- Clearly expressed ideas
- Uses a persuasive technique
- Creative presentation

A fun project to engage students!

One group is to write and present a television commercial for your made up product.

persuasive technique. All you need is...

Persuasion and Power James P. Farwell, 2012-11-27 Now more than ever in the arenas of national security diplomacy and military operations effective communication strategy is of paramount importance A 24 7 television radio and Internet news cycle paired with an explosion in social media demands it According to James P Farwell an expert in communication strategy and cyber war who has advised the U S SPECIAL OPERATIONS COMMAND and the Department of Defense and worked nationally and internationally as a media and political consultant this book examines how colorful figures in history from Julius Caesar to Winston Churchill Napoleon to Hugo Chavez Martin Luther to Barack Obama and Ronald Reagan have forged communication strategies to influence audiences Mark Twain said that history doesn t repeat itself but rhymes In showing how major leaders have moved audiences Farwell bears out Twain s thesis Obama and Luther each wanted to reach a mass audience Obama used social media and the Internet Luther used the printing press But the strategic mindset was similar Hugo Chavez identifies with Simon Bolivar but his attitude towards the media more closely echoes Napoleon Caesar used coins to build his image in ways that echo the modern use of campaign buttons His triumphs enormous parades to celebrate military victories celebrated his achievements and aimed to impress the populace with his power and greatness Adolph Hitler employed a similar tactic with his torchlight parades The book shows how the US government's approach to strategic communication has been misguided It offers a colorful incisive critical evaluation of the concepts doctrines and activities that the US Department of Defense and Department of State employ for psychological operations military information support operations propaganda and public diplomacy Persuasion and Power is a book about the art of communication strategy how it is used where and why Farwell's adroit use of vivid examples produce a well researched entertaining story that illustrates how its principles have made a critical difference throughout history in the outcomes of crises conflicts politics and diplomacy across different cultures and societies
