Persuasive Writing Worksheets

EMOTIVE LANGUAGE

Persuasive writers often use emotive language to make the reader feel emotions and to make them sympathise with their point of view.

EXAMPLES

Those actions are bad = Those actions are appalling and incredibly dangerous.

Our friends are not nice = Our friends are cruel and merciless.
He is a good person = He is a life-saving hero.

ACTIVITY

Underline the emotive language in each of the sentences below.

1. All of this strenuous homework is making our children feel exhausted and anxious.
2. The vicious, fierce dog was chasing the terrified and vulnerable boy.
3. The abandoned child stood miserable and alone after the cruel mother left.

CREATE YOUR OWN

Write an emotive word for each of the words below.

Word	Emotive Word
Happy

Persuasive Writing Peter Frederick, 2012-09-26 Developed from powerful techniques consistently proven in the world of multi million pound commercial bid writing Persuasive Writing reveals the most efficient and effective ways to make your words work time after time Discover how to Transform any document into something truly compelling and persuasive Understand what your reader really wants to hear and use this to get what you want Combine logic and emotion to convince even the most sceptical reader Whether you re writing for business or for pleasure the longest document or the shortest email with these and many more proven techniques Persuasive Writing will ensure every word works for you Delivering the Framework for Teaching English Michael Ross, Keith West, 2002 Responding to the demands of the Framework for Teaching English Years 7 9 within the context of the revised National Curriculum the Level Best series offers a carefully structured and motivating approach to English for Key Stage 3 Hooking Students into Learning Patricia Hipwell, 2018-07-20 Best selling author of the How to write what you want to say series Patricia Hipwell has completed her magnum opus which will benefit all teachers from Year 4 Year 12 This book has been written to provide teachers with ways of hooking students into learning at the start of each and every lesson It contains almost 300 ways of doing this The book is designed to be used by teachers in all curriculum areas from Year 4 upwards It contains a plethora of ideas that can be adapted to any curriculum area In the book the term relevant or subject specific content is used a great deal This is because skills are always best developed in the context of use with content that is relevant to current areas of study There is little point for example in asking students to do an activity that develops their sentence writing skills using information on Ancient Greece when they are currently studying the Black Death The symbiotic relationship between content and skills means that teachers often have to develop their own resources because this enables them to focus on the skills using relevant and current content Various referred to as anticipatory sets warm ups lesson starters or hooks the activities in this book are excellent ways to switch students on to their learning In this book the activities will be referred to as lesson starters Their purposes include moving key facts and figures from short term to long term memory activating prior knowledge about a topic where prior knowledge exists awakening interest in the topic of the lesson checking for understanding improving a variety of skills developing learning strategies improving vocabulary developing collaborative learning strategies Most of these activities are designed to take between five and ten minutes at the start of the lesson Students may take longer until they become familiar with them especially if the activities are different from current learning activities Many of the activities will work best if students work in pairs or small groups Some activities can generate noise and therefore be unsettling so teachers will need to be mindful of this when choosing a particular activity They may prefer to do the activity at the end rather than the start of a lesson In this case the purpose of the activity is to consolidate the learning of the lesson The focus of many of the activities is to increase the amount of reading and writing we require students to do Also students need to develop their vocabulary in all areas of the curriculum and many of the activities have been developed with this in mind
