Professional Services Ulrich Bäumer, Peter Kreutter, Wolfgang Messner, 2012-06-05 In the past services had a strong local and national focus Professional services were very likely to be independently and autonomously organized from country to country in order to cater to local needs and local legal requirements This has since changed radically and highly integrated business and delivery models around the globe have become the status quo in clients businesses and strategies Serving clients on a global level requires professional services firms to adopt a structural change from local to distributed global sales and delivery This book brings together many years of experience current perspectives and future ideas of international business practitioners academics and market researchers Along those lines it is structured into four parts Part I Winning Strategies and Innovative Ideas lays the book s foundation it discusses core strategies behind the globalization movement and introduces the major paradigms and ideas Part II Successful Processes for Realization provides solutions for how to establish successful processes for delivering global professional services Part III Inspired Talent Management goes to the core of the professional services industry attracting developing and keeping the right talent in the right locations Finally Part IV offers Experiences and Case Studies on all aspects related to successfully building a globalized professional services firm In short this handbook provides professional services firms and their clients alike with a sound foundation for responding strategically to fundamental global changes and turning them into business advantages It offers a comprehensive perspective of why and how to successfully globalize a professional services firm Coordination in Service Value Networks Benjamin

Sebastian Blau, 2011 Digital Enterprises Henderik A. Proper, Bas van Gils, Kazem Haki, 2023-11-14 This book explores different aspects of and provides concrete suggestions to meet the three main challenges for becoming a Digital Enterprise the transition to the digital age the emergence of service ecosystems and the growing role of data as a key underlying resource As a result of these intertwined and mutually amplifying trends today s enterprises are confronted with several challenges that profoundly impact their design from the definitions of products and services offered to their clients via the business processes that deliver these products and services to the underlying IT infrastructure The contributions which are written by leading enterprise architecture researchers and managers of large corporations cover four key aspects which form each one part of the book Part I presents experiences how different enterprises currently already need to embrace and exploit new challenges like blockchain customer centric services or value co creation networks Part II looks at the need for a new design logic i.e. the need for new ways of thinking regarding the design of enterprises Part III is concerned with the coordination needed among different stakeholders of the ensuing continuous transformations Part IV eventually reflects on the ongoing consequences for enterprise modeling as used to capture both the current affairs of an enterprise as well as design study its possible future affairs The target audience of this book are both master and PhD level students who want to gain insights into key aspects of the challenges confronting digital enterprises as well as enterprise architects and information managers working in enterprises that are on their way to become digital

Business Aspects of Web Services Christof Weinhardt, Benjamin Blau, Tobias Conte, Lilia Filipova-Neumann, Thomas Meinel, Wibke Michalk, 2011-11-10 Driven by maturing Web service technologies and the wide acceptance of the service oriented architecture paradigm the software industry's traditional business models and strategies have begun to change software vendors are turning into service providers In addition in the Web service market a multitude of small and highly specialized providers offer modular services of almost any kind and economic value is created through the interplay of various distributed service providers that jointly contribute to form individualized and integrated solutions This trend can be optimally catalyzed by universally accessible service orchestration platforms service value networks SVNs which are the underlying organizational form of the coordination mechanisms presented in this book Here the authors focus on providing comprehensive business oriented insights into today's trends and challenges that stem from the transition to a service led economy They investigate current and future Web service business models and provide a framework for Web service value networks Pricing mechanism basics are introduced and applied to the specific area of SVNs Strategies for platform providers are analyzed from the viewpoint of a single provider and so are pricing mechanisms in service value networks which are optimal from a network perspective The extended concept of pricing Web service derivatives is also illustrated The presentation concludes with a vision of how Web service markets in the future could be structured and what further developments can be expected to happen This book will be of interest to researchers in business development and practitioners such as managers of SMEs in the service sector as well as computer scientists familiar with Web technologies The book's comprehensive content provides readers with a thorough understanding of the organizational economic and technical implications of dealing with Web services as the nucleus of modern business models which can be applied to Web services in general and Web service value networks specifically

Collaborative Networks for a Sustainable World Luis M. Camarinha-Matos, Xavier Boucher, Hamideh Afsarmanesh, 2010-09-21 Collaborative Networks for a Sustainable World Aiming to reach a sustainable world calls for a wider collaboration among multiple stakeholders from different origins as the changes needed for sustainability exceed the capacity and capability of any individual actor In recent years there has been a growing awareness both in the political sphere and in civil society including the business sectors on the importance of sustainability Therefore this is an important and timely research issue not only in terms of systems design but also as an effort to borrow and integrate contributions from different disciplines when designing and organizing those systems The discipline of collaborative networks especially which has already emerged in many application sectors shall play a key role in the implementation of effective sustainability strategies PRO VE 2010 focused on sharing knowledge and experiences as well as identifying directions for further research and development in this area The conference discussed models infrastructures support tools and governance principles developed for collaborative networks as important resources to support multi stakeholder sustainable developments Furthermore the challenges of this theme open new research directions for CNs PRO VE 2010 held in St
