A Study of Musical Hermeneutics Ion Piso, 2013-11-18 This study in artistic hermeneutics contains objections and critiques that have been generated by the contemporary cultural scenery of musical interpretation especially related to the opera performances Nevertheless as the reader will surely notice such critique can be very well applied to the entire spectrum of contemporary culture as the phenomena described here are ubiquitous Ion Piso's alarm signal study is essential reading particularly as it comes from somebody who has over half a century's experience of being an artist interpreter in world opera As such Piso is well placed to offer such a critique and thus fulfil Goethe's challenging desideratum You can only judge fairly what you yourself are able to accomplish as the following quotations fully illustrate J. Piso was the new duke He incarnates all the virtues that an interpreter must have for this role and which are seldom met with in one person These are the reasons why the duke of Mantova has become a role for which they are looking for specialized tenors Piso is both young and lean elegant and full of temperament a very credible and conquering playboy La donna e mobile has the qualities of Gigli and his legato sounds always seductive Furthermore who else brings together these days the finesse of the belcanto with such a prodigality of brilliant high notes K.
