Caution: Precautions

Caution: Pulling, pushing, or climbing on the tree may cause the Tree-Nut to fall. In particular, parents may find it difficult to keep the Tree-Nut from pulling on the tree when they climb the Tree. This action may cause the Tree to tip over, causing serious injuries or death. Follow all safety precautions presented in the Safety Paper included with your Tree for added stability and safety; you can purchase and install the anti-fall device, referred to as "Showercap Tree-Tie Down System."

WARNING: Never place a telephone unit in an unsuitable location. The telephone unit may fall, causing serious personal injury or death. Always require, particularly for children, that the telephone be hanging properly and securely on the wall.

- Always use laboratory or scientific measuring methods recommended by the manufacturer.
- Always use the formulae that can safely support the television set.
- Always ensure the television set is not overloading the edge of the supporting furniture.
- Always indicate children about the dangers of climbing on furniture or television set or on the controls.
- Always make cords and cables connected to your television set or them connected to things not placed or protected.
- Never get a television set in an unstable position.
- Never place the television set and avoid furniture the elements, especially on television set without anchoring both the furniture and the television set to a suitable support.
- Never place the television set on itself or other materials that may be located between the television set and the supporting furniture.
- Never place chemicals that might harm children to climb, such as dyes and cosmetic controls, on the top of the television set furniture on which the television is placed. For example, if you use a television set on a table, the table, the same considerations as above should be applied.
- When you have to replace or replace the television set or the furniture, always use the same formulae and the same.
