Margot Finn, 2017-04-24 For the past four decades increasing numbers of Americans have started paying greater attention to the food they eat buying organic vegetables drinking fine wines and seeking out exotic cuisines Yet they are often equally passionate about the items they refuse to eat processed foods generic brands high carb meals While they may care deeply about issues like nutrition and sustainable agriculture these discriminating diners also seek to differentiate themselves from the unrefined eater the common person who lives on junk food Discriminating Taste argues that the rise of gourmet ethnic diet and organic foods must be understood in tandem with the ever widening income inequality gap Offering an illuminating historical perspective on our current food trends S Margot Finn draws numerous parallels with the Gilded Age of the late nineteenth century an era infamous for its class divisions when gourmet dinners international cuisines slimming diets and pure foods first became fads Examining a diverse set of cultural touchstones ranging from Ratatouille to The Biggest Loser Finn identifies the key ways that good food has become conflated with high status She also considers how these taste hierarchies serve as a distraction leading middle class professionals to focus on small acts of glamorous and virtuous consumption while ignoring their class's larger economic stagnation. A provocative look at the ideology of contemporary food culture. Discriminating Taste teaches us to question the maxim that you are what you eat.

Beverage Basics Robert W. Small, Michelle Couturier, 2011-09-13 Beverage Basics presents a new approach to understanding wine and other alcoholic beverages. The book includes an introduction to alcoholic beverages, information on important issues such as purchasing beverages, healthy drinking and alcohol and the law, and an introduction to wine including viticulture, viniculture, and the sensory evaluation of wine. The authors teach readers about wines by varietal as opposed to appellation, which is a much simpler entry point for beginners to the world of wine. In addition to all the major wine varieties (Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, etc.), the book also covers hybrid and Native American varieties, sparkling wines, and dessert and fortified wines. Chapters on beer and distilled spirits include information on making, purchasing, and evaluating beer and spirits. The appendices include map-filled sections on The Old World and The New World of wine, as well as a thorough examination of the TTB requirements for alcoholic beverage labels and a complete glossary of terms. Author Robert Small is former Dean and Emeritus Professor of The Collins College of Hospitality Management at California State Polytechnic University Pomona, where he still teaches courses on wine, spirits, and beer, and on beverage marketing and food and beverage management, and is the Chairman of the Los Angeles International Wine Competition, one of the largest and most prestigious wine competitions in the United States.
