Approaching Loss Steve Marvin,2007-09-12 Loss comes at its own pace amorphous and unknowable It can be relentless old age a stalking lion a vulgar little tumor It can be sudden instantaneous the head on collision the snap of the elevator cable the rupture of a tiny blood vessel It may be at its worst when its approach is unseen No preparation is possible No chance for amends or prayers no time for bargains with God So it came to Brian Baylor A big city man street smart NY LA cool a success a young retiree with the woman of his dreams moving on to their secluded ranch in New Mexico But the high desert holds dangers that nullify street smarts Seemingly senseless challenges can trump success As idyllic visions give way to reality as unforeseen forces make themselves manifest Brian is caught up with people from whom he has no effective defense An entire lifetime of being the baddest dude in the Valley provides him no bulwark against the denizens of this new landscape There is no bluffing at this table Everyone raises the stakes and by the time that you realize you're up against pros it may be too late Approaching Loss is about a man in over his head fighting for understanding and his very survival Sit down and fasten your seatbelt Its gonna be a bumpy ride Never Fight Fair! Orr Kelly, 1996 They go in first they go in fast and they do
