Vancouver Sun Salaries Report:

Vancouver Past: Essays in Social History Robert A. J. McDonald, Jean Barman, 1986-01-01 Focusing on Vancouver's social history the essays written for this special edition of BC Studies treat hitherto neglected areas of the city's past and bring new insights into how its residents lived and worked Receiving particular attention is the socio economic and residential structure of Vancouver with one author arguing that the city's economy created an urban working class which was at once more complex and politically more conservative than that of the highly polarized communities on Vancouver Island and in the Interior

Brokering Access Mike Larsen, Kevin Walby, 2012-08-10 Is the business of public officials any of the public's business Most Canadians would argue that it is that we citizens are entitled to enquire and get answers about our government's actions Yet on a practical level there still exists a struggle between the public's quest for accountability and the government's culture of secrecy Drawing together the unique perspectives of social scientists journalists and access to information ATI advocates Brokering Access explores the history of ATI law and supplies multiple examples of its contemporary application at the federal provincial and municipal levels From restrictions to access of airport security data post 9 11 to censorship under the Access to Information Act to the difficulties of obtaining details on streetscape video surveillance this book reveals the legal and bureaucratic obstacles citizens face when trying to access government information

Officer's Report [to The] Annual Convention Newspaper Guild, 1976

Canadian Annual Review of Politics and Public Affairs 2002 David Mutimer, 2008-03-08 Both at home and abroad the events of 2002 contrasted significantly with those of the previous year something for which most Canadians could be extremely grateful To no one's surprise however the year was dominated by the issues that had captivated the world's attention at the end of 2001 the attacks on the United States and the subsequent war on terror declared by the Bush Administration Canada had chosen to stand shoulder to shoulder with its southern neighbour in response to those attacks and in 2002 the meaning of that commitment became clear as Canada entered into full scale combat operations in Afghanistan suffered its first casualties and ended the year torn over whether to follow the United States should it choose to take its war to Iraq On the home front a battle of an altogether different magnitude reached a turning point with the seeming resolution of the long running struggle between Prime Minister Jean Chrétien and Minister of Finance Paul Martin even though by year's end it was by no means clear who had actually won Similarly a number of the consequences of the 9 11 attacks remained unresolved Bill C 17 had not been passed Ottawa software engineer Maher Arar languished in a Syrian jail where he had been sent by the United States and the war drums were beating loudly around Iraq Continuing in the standard for which it has been acclaimed the Canadian Annual Review of Politics and Public Affairs 2002 presents detailed analyses of events that have come to define our nation in recent years

Deceptions and Doublecross Morey Holzman,Joseph Nieforth,2002-10-01 Hockey lovers will be fascinated by the truth about how the National Hockey League was founded and how through less than savory means it captured permanent possession of the Stanley Cup Deceptions and Doublecross begins with the 1917 conspiracy among a Montreal contingent of the National Hockey Association to oust Toronto owner Edward James Livingstone from the league The result was the transformation of the NHA into the NHL with Frank Calder as president leaving Livingstone out in the cold Under Calder's iron-fisted direction the NHL became the only major hockey league in North America and gained exclusive claim to the Stanley Cup
