Social Work in an International Perspective Charlotte De Kock, Christian Van Kerckhove, Eva Vens, 2014-02-18 In this work academics and practitioners from all five continents highlight the history of the social work profession and its underlying academic and social paradigms The authors come from Australia Austria Brazil Belgium Canada Ghana Great Britain India New Zealand South Africa and the United States The structure of this work allows the reader to trace back the historical and political influences in the interpretation of social work in the authors countries Special attention is given to the notions of human rights and social diversity Are human rights universal and which impact does this universality have on the social work profession How does categorical work relate to generalist practice and does this in its turn relate to the conception of diversity The authors approach these main queries in an exemplary and balanced manner using both theoretical analysis and case studies Social work in the 21st century (Prof.) Mogomme A.

Masoga, Allucia L. Shokane, Annaline Keet, Varoshini Nadesan, 2024-12-30 This scholarly book Social work in the 21st century Scholarship and praxis reimagined towards vulnerability is the third volume in the Knowledge Pathing Multi Inter and Trans Disciplining in Social Sciences book series Chapters were invited from contributing authors who are involved in social work practice and education and who are dealing with the issues of poverty inequality and vulnerability in these fields The focus of the book emanates from the main conference theme and sub themes of the ASASWEI Association of South African Social Work Education Institutions conference held in 2021 The theme of the conference Pandemics poverty inequality and disability Social work in the 21st century provided an opportunity for deep deliberation knowledge exchange and skills development on how vulnerable communities already on the economic margins of society due to poverty and inequality are further marginalised during significant societal disruptions such as the coronavirus 2019 COVID 19 pandemic It is these deliberations which culminated in this book Drawing on the papers presented the chapters promote knowledge and skills around vulnerabilities in our social context and how the social work profession is challenged to interrogate its role in addressing the persistent challenges of poverty and inequality that keep people on the peripheries of human development The target audience for this book is primarily academics engaged in the field of social work and related fields Why

Urban-Rural Under-Developed Communities Will Never Develop in South Africa Dudu Sokhela, 2013-11 At the heart of community development in under developed communities ghettos and slums is society's need to deal decisively with poverty want and need South African author Dudu Sokhela has compacted cutting edge techniques and strategies that can ensure sustainable urban rural community development based on the person centered community development approach Drawing from extensive knowledge and experience of grass roots progressive social change acquired at various nonprofit organizations she presents a solid point of entry into the indigent community that is often characterized by poverty and inequalities The book's information is presented right from the time the indigent community is entered This allows readers to learn the values and beliefs that make up the community as well as the delicate process of consultation community participation and the hindrances hampering development that are coupled with the prevalent inexperience and promotion of dependency by service providers Profound inequalities and favoritism exist in the way resources are funded and distributed by those in power There is also a lack of compliance in coordinating community programs and how the community can proceed in maintaining development once it has been started Why Urban Rural Under Developed Communities Will Never Develop in South Africa is a must read for those in the helping professions tasked with turning the tide of poverty in these communities in South Africa like the Mooiplaas Informal Settlement in Centurion This book can help bring to fruition new government strategies to regulate service providers funded by private organizations and also aid those that promote dependency in such communities

Future-proofing STEAME education in South Africa Rajendran Govender,Josef de Beer,Rouaan Maarman,Rajendra Chetty,2025-02-28 This book aims to contribute to the discourse of finding innovative solutions to the myriad of challenges facing science education in South Africa The book positions itself in the multi disciplinary focus on Science Technology Engineering Arts Mathematics and Entrepreneurship STEAME education rather than the traditional narrow focus on Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics STEM The chapters in the book explore the challenges and opportunities facing STEAME education in a complex 21st century and at the advent of a society with a strong artificial intelligence component in its DNA The leitmotif of the book is how engaging pedagogies could be utilised in the classroom to enhance self directed learning a sine qua non to future proof South Africa s science and technological advancement This is a book written by scholars for scholars Its target audience includes academics and researchers in the field of science education and scholars engaged with innovative teaching pedagogies particularly approaches that would enhance the achievement of learners in disadvantaged contexts The chapters in the book although eclectic in approach all contribute to the central theme of the book Most of the chapters lean on textual analyses literature reviews or concept papers which disclose new ideas before full validation
