In Different Times Ian van der Waag,Albert Grundlingh,2019-11-15 This is the first attempt to bring together diverse scholars using different lenses to study South Africa s Border War As a book it is critical in approach provides deeper reflection and focuses specifically on the SADF experience of the war The result is a more complex picture of the war s dynamics and its legacies Although South Africa is a vastly different country today the study of the Border War opens a range of questions also relevant to contemporary deployments such as in Lesotho 1998 and the Central African Republic 2013 It includes the debate on participation in foreign conflicts on the deployment design and preparation of appropriate modern armed forces and their use as foreign policy instruments in far off theatres on military planning and as the historical controversies regarding the battles at Cuito Cuanavale and Bangui illustrate on the interface between foreign campaigning and domestic politics

From Genes to Species: Novel Insights from Metagenomics Eamonn P. Culligan,Roy D. Sleator,2016-10-07 The majority of microbes in many environments are considered as yet uncultured and were traditionally considered inaccessible for study through the microbiological gold standard of pure culture The emergence of metagenomic approaches has allowed researchers to access and study these microbes in a culture independent manner through DNA sequencing and functional expression of metagenomic DNA in a heterologous host Metagenomics has revealed an extraordinary degree of diversity and novelty not only among microbial communities themselves but also within the genomes of these microbes This Research Topic aims to showcase the utility of metagenomics to gain insights on the microbial and genomic diversity in different environments by revealing the breadth of novelty that was in the past largely untapped

Routledge Handbook of Urban Water Governance Thomas Bolognesi, Francisco Silva Pinto, Megan Farrelly, 2022-09-01 This handbook provides a comprehensive state of the art overview of urban water governance Of the many growing challenges presented by rapid urbanization water governance is a critical one and while urban water governance is now regarded as a critical field of research the literature is fragmented For the first time this handbook brings together urban water governance research containing interdisciplinary contributions from established and emerging scholars practitioners and policymakers It addresses the key questions of how urban water governance works how is it shaped and what the impacts are The handbook s structure offers a progressive entry into the complexity of urban water governance Starting with technical dimensions the handbook addresses supply and demand wastewater and sanitation It then considers regulation and economic factors examining water utilities and services Political processes and the actors involved are addressed and the handbook finishes with a part focusing on governance and sustainability where chapters address critically important topics such as access to water water safety and water security This handbook is essential reading for students scholars and professionals interested in urban water governance urban studies and water resource management and sustainability more broadly

Religion and Education Malini Sivasubramaniam, Ruth Hayhoe, 2018-01-01 Despite the increased trend towards secularisation in state schooling issues of religion and spirituality have remained important Increased pluralism within societies through expanding migration patterns is changing the religious and cultural contours of many countries in Europe and North America and is creating a need for a deeper understanding of religious diversity However the lack of religious or spiritual education within the educational curriculum leaves a moral vacuum that can become a space to be exploited by religious extremism More recently religiously motivated incidences of terrorism in several parts of the world have heightened prejudicial attitudes and distrust of certain religions in particular These are profound concerns and there is an urgency to examine how religion religious education and interfaith initiatives can address such misconceptions This book is thus timely focusing on an area that is often neglected particularly on the role of religion in education for sustainable development While religious organisations and faith communities have had a long history of involvement in both schooling and social service delivery in many countries their role in reaching development goals has not always been explicitly recognised as is evident even in the United Nations most recently conceptualised 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development Undeniably the integration of religious dialogue into mainstream development issues is crucial because deep cleavages resulting from the issue of minority religious rights continue to give cause for concern and conflict in many countries This edited book explores some of these tensions and issues and draws parallels across differing geographical contexts to help enhance our collective and comparative understanding of the role of religious education and institutions in advancing the post 2015 development agenda The contributors to this volume each demonstrate that while religion in education can contribute to understanding and respect it is also a space that can be contested and co opted Without addressing the salience of religion however it will not be possible to foster peace and combat discrimination and prejudice This book will be of interest to researchers scholars and students in the field of comparative education and development religious studies theology and teacher development and training This book may also be of interest to national and international policy makers There are also numerous faith based organisations as well as other non governmental organisations NGOs working on religion and education issues that may find these case studies a useful resource Building the Anti-Racist University Shirley Anne Tate,Paul Bagguley,2018-12-18 In the new arena for anti racist work in which we find ourselves the neo liberal post race university this interdisciplinary collection demonstrates common global political concerns about racism in Higher Education It highlights a range of issues regarding students academic staff and knowledge systems and all of the contributions seek to challenge the complacency of the post race present that is dominant in North West Europe and North America Brazil s mythical racial democracy and South Africa s post apartheid rainbow nation The collection makes clear that we are not yet past the need for anti racist institutional action because of the continuing impact of coloniality on and in these nations Chapter 7 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Postgraduate Study in South Africa Liezel Frick,2016-11-21 The book explores concerns about the lack of higher education transformation around issues of equity curriculum reform language and race and how students navigate higher education complexities Students self reflective abilities creativity and pragmatic approaches to surviving and succeeding are indicators that postgraduate student success is as much internally as externally determined Each chapter speaks from a uniquely South African perspective The editors have tried to remain true to the voice of each contributor while simultaneously providing a coherent body of scholarly work
