

Holiday/Vacation Policy

The following sample company policy statements are for holiday leave. Generally, holidays are paid leave with no loss of credit for the employee's length of service with the company. The policy below mentions Floating Holidays, which are a couple of days you designate each year just to give your employees a little more time off. If you don't want to offer Floating Holidays, you should remove the reference. If you want your policy to differ in other ways from the policy set out below, you should change this policy to reflect those differences. If you make substantive changes to this policy, however, you should have your attorney look over the changes. A list of holidays typically provided by employers is also included.

Annual Holidays

[YOUR COMPANY] observes the following holidays:

New Year's Day
Memorial Day
Independence Day
Labor Day
Thanksgiving Day
Friday after Thanksgiving
Christmas Eve
Christmas Day
Floating Holiday
Personal Holiday

Paid Holidays

All full-time employees will receive holiday pay of eight straight time hours at their regular rate, provided the following conditions are satisfied:

1. Work a full shift on the employee's last scheduled work shift prior to the paid holiday.
2. Work a full shift on the employee's first scheduled work shift following the holiday.
3. Should the employee be unable to work either of these two days because of illness, proof of illness will be required in order to qualify for the paid holiday.

The shift differential for second and third shift employees will not be included in holiday pay.
