Criminological Theory J. Robert Lilly, Francis T. Cullen, Richard A. Ball, 2007 The Fourth Edition of this highly acclaimed book expands on previous editions with coverage of newly emerged theories and empirical updates supported by a significant amount of new references Criminological Theory provides coverage of the latest theories in the field without diminishing the presentation of classic analysis Major theoretical perspectives that have developed from both recent critical work and traditional schools together with practical applications compel the reader to apply theories to the contemporary social milieu

Parenting in Privilege or Peril Pamela R. Bennett, Amy Lutz, Lakshmi Jayaram, 2021 Is the American dream that exists for the middle class equally available to the working class Using extensive interviews with parents and a variety of data sources this book examines how social contexts and culture affect parenting decisions By analyzing class differences in neighborhoods schools and networks as well as their relationship to mobility related parenting practices the authors demonstrate that cultural differences are no match for economic inequalities They show how middle class parents have access to social contexts characterized by security which gives rise to what the authors call strategic parenting a set of practices that allow adolescents to develop the qualities and skills they will use to go off to college and subsequently achieve the American dream Conversely the contexts of working class parents are characterized by precarity giving rise to defensive parenting an almost frantic use of harm mitigating interventions to protect adolescents from threats to both their well being and prospects for mobility This important book calls for a shift in public policy away from trying to change working class parents to improving the social contexts in which society asks them to raise the next generation Book Features An explanation for social class differences in educationally relevant mobility related parenting practices that contrasts with the dominant cultural explanation Research findings that are informed by a variety of data sources including interview data survey data social network data census data and crime statistics Two new parenting concepts strategic parenting and defensive parenting that capture how middle class and working class parents pursue social mobility for their children
