Challenging the Representation of Ethnically Divided Cities Giulia Carabelli,Aleksandra Djurasovic,Renata Summa,2021-05-24 The book Challenging the Representation of Ethnically Divided Cities Perspectives from Mostar questions the existing overrepresentation of Mostar as an ethnically divided city While acknowledging the existence of internal borders the chapters in this book assert that they are not solid nor fixed and by exploring how they become material or immaterial the book offers a deeper understanding of the city's complex dynamics Accordingly the chapters in this book are attentive to how ethnic divides materialise or lose importance because of socio political contingencies Events groups and spaces that promote reconciliation from the bottom up are examined not necessarily to assess their success and failures but rather to look at how they create networks gain trust and form platforms that generate novel understandings of ethnic loyalties and party memberships Further and drawing both on the empirical data and theoretical reflections this volume contributes to broader debates about divided cities by suggesting the need to engage with these cities in their complexities rather than reducing them to their ethno national divisions The book engages with socio political and economic complexities in order to shed light on how ethnic conflicts and resulting spatial partitioning are often just the surface of much more complex dynamics that are far less easy to disentangle and represent The chapters in this book were originally published in Space and Polity Global Library and Information Science Ismail Abdullahi, 2017-11-07 This 2nd edition of the highly successful Global Library and Information Science presents an up to date review of international librarianship and library science through insightful and well written chapters contributed by experts and scholars from all regions of the world The role of public academic special school libraries as well as library and information science education are presented from the early development to the present time Its lively readable approach will help the reader to understand librarianship in Africa Asia Australia and New Zealand Europe Latin America and the Caribbean and North America Edited by Ismail Abdullahi Professor of Global Library and Information Science this book is a must read by library science students and teachers librarians and anyone interested in Global Librarianship Educational Digital Transformation: New Technological Challenges for Competence Development Julio Cabero Almenara, Carmen Llorente Cejudo, Antonio Palacios-Rodriguez, 2023-10-09 The COVID 19 pandemic has provided a unique opportunity to examine our understanding of the opportunities and challenges that ICTs offer to support the functioning of all aspects of education The closure of educational institutions has forced a radical change in the practices of teachers and societies regarding the use of ICT to support teaching learning social relations and work in many sectors In the training of digital skills the instrumental mastery of ICT continues to outweigh the preparation of citizens to make constructive and safe use of technologies After two decades of educational policies we continue to reduce digital literacy to instrumental skills That is you do not learn why to use educational technologies and how or to be critical of their use Education 4.0 seeks to develop and enhance the digital skills of students and teachers in digital teaching environments through the creation of a line of academic training programs for undergraduate postgraduate and continuing education This article collection welcomes contributions to improve training policies and practices in Educational Digital Transformation for educational development strategies activities proposals for assessment and certification of skills Emancipatory Human Rights and the University Felisa Tibbitts, André Keet, 2023-08-25 This volume explores the application of human rights to higher education through a critical lens Combining theoretical and applied perspectives it asks what a human rights framework grounded in liberation and justice can offer to ways of working and teaching practices in higher education Human rights in this edited compilation call for continuous critical engagements around the higher education transformation project The book recognizes human rights simultaneously as law values and emancipatory vision It showcases global north and global south perspectives and encourages a dialogue between the human rights approach and other approaches to higher education transformation such as decolonialization anti racism diversity and inclusion and intersectionality Individual chapters featuring a range of case studies written from global south and north perspectives critically examine higher education practices linked with human rights ranging from curricular practices to student activism and community partnerships The critical space of the university and its role in the transformation of society is therefore viewed in multi dimensional ways Underlining the value of applying human rights as a framework in understanding and designing higher education transformation the book will be of great interest to scholars researchers and post graduate students in the fields of the sociology of education human rights education higher education and social justice education

Feminist Politics, Intersectionality and Knowledge Cultivation Radhika Govinda, 2025-02-11 In Feminist Politics Intersectionality and Knowledge Cultivation Radhika Govinda engages with intersectionality as critical theory as critical methodology and as critical pedagogy to make sense of feminist politics in India and beyond and knowledge making on feminist politics as such In doing so she makes a case for theory making conducting empirical research and classroom teaching to be understood as integral parts of knowledge cultivation each feeding into the other Differently put the book encapsulates Govinda's engagement spanning fifteen years and four case studies exploring what insights an intersectional lens throws up and how these insights complicate our understandings of marginality privilege and solidarity in the field of women's and gender studies in feminist classrooms in women's and social movements in particular NGO led feminist activism state led development initiatives and digital feminist campaigns and in everyday social relations in rural and urban spaces Uncovering interrogating and disrupting the politics of coloniality and feminist complicity is an important running thread in the book

Through a reflexive account of her own location and practice in the academy at the cusp of the global north and the global south Govinda highlights the importance of being attentive to intersectional positionality and to the contextual specificities of engaging in feminist politics and knowledge making in the age of global neoliberalism Nelson Mandela Matt Doeden, 2014-08-01 On December 5 2013 former South African President Nelson Mandela passed away at the age of 95 People around the world mourned the death of this human rights activist Thousands of South Africans waited hours to walk past his casket to pay their respects and world leaders and celebrities attended his funeral including Pope Francis several US presidents and Bono Mandela was born in 1918 in South Africa While in law school he joined the African National Congress The ANC spoke out against South Africa's apartheid laws which allowed separate treatment of people based on skin color He began his activism in the 1940s and was arrested many times before he received a life sentence in 1964 After spending more than 25 years in jail Mandela was released in 1990 and soon after partnered with South African President F W de Klerk to help end apartheid They won the Nobel Peace Prize together in 1993 The next year Mandela became the first African president of South Africa After his term as president he continued his work as a human rights advocate until he retired in 2004 After a long illness he died in 2013 He will be remembered for his leadership for years to come The Handbook of International Higher Education Darla K. Deardorff, Hans de Wit, Betty Leask, Harvey Charles, 2023-07-03 Co published with AIEA International higher education has evolved in some respects dramatically in the decade since publication of the first edition of this handbook The new issues trends practices and priorities of research that evolved over this time have in some instances been transformed by one of the most dynamic and tumultuous periods in the history of international higher education brought on by the pandemic a re emergence of nationalism and the recognition of the power imbalances between the developed economies and the global south and racial inequities within and across borders This new edition addresses the myriad changes across all aspects of international education each chapter addressing to the extent possible the reality of the present in which they were written and offering some insights for the future While updating a number of chapters from the first edition it also includes a preponderance of new chapters written by contributors representing wider and more diverse backgrounds In keeping with the first edition the overall message is that the internationalization of higher education has a vital role to play in a world that is more interconnected than ever before Recognizing changing economic geopolitical climatic and public health issues as well as the importance of international and cross cultural collaboration to address global problems this handbook offers a comprehensive range of models data and ideas to stimulate new directions in the conception and practice of international education This edition reflects today's concerns around inclusion diversity and equity and how international education is being changed by issues such as decolonization the focus on learning outcomes the impact of digital tools to enhance access and learning and collaboration such a virtual exchange competition for resources risk new patterns of mobility and new models such as joint programs and qualifications As with the first edition the chapters often intentionally pair scholars and practitioners from different parts of the world and include text boxes that highlight concrete institutional national or regional experiences providing diverse voices and perspectives from around the world This comprehensive new edition provides ideas concepts theories and practical ideas from around the world for those seeking to enhance the quality of the three core functions of higher education teaching research and service to society It constitutes an essential resource for everyone involved in the delivery of international education and in determining its future direction

Summary of Contents Maintaining a similar structure of the first edition this revised Handbook is comprised of four sections The first section includes five chapters that address national regional and international frameworks and contexts The second addresses key aspects of internationalization at the strategy level covering leadership institutional strategies outcomes assessment resources and financing risk management and institutional linkages and partnerships The third describes core functions of internationalization addressing intercultural competence development the internationalization of the curriculum teaching and learning virtual exchange international perspectives on the work of student affairs professionals student engagement engaging staff and faculty the internationalization of research and finally and a chapter on serving communities

The Politics of the Near Jérôme Tournadre, 2022-05-17 The Politics of the Near offers a novel approach to social unrest in post-apartheid South Africa. Keeping the noise of demonstrations, barricades and clashes with the police at a distance, this ethnography of a poor people's movement traces individual commitments and the mainsprings of mobilization in the ordinary social and intimate life of activists, their relatives and other township residents. Tournadre's approach picks up on aspects of activists' lives that are often neglected in the study of social movements that help us better understand the dynamics of protest and the attachment of activists to their organization and its cause. What Tournadre calls a politics of the near takes shape through sometimes innocuous actions and beyond the separation between public and domestic spheres. By mapping the daily life of Black and low-income neighborhoods and the intimate domain where expectations and disappointments surface, The Politics of the Near offers a different perspective on the rainbow nation, a perspective more sensitive to the fact that three decades after the end of apartheid poverty and race are still as tightly interwoven as ever      From Hope to Action through Knowledge Ramesh Bharuthram, Larry Pokpas, 2020-10-27 Its November 2001 A university in dire straits financially bankrupt burdening a debt in excess of R100 million a disillusioned and demoralised staff complement still reeling from the trauma of retrenchments coupled with an academic project facing collapse as student numbers dwindle by a third to less than 10 000 Is there a future for such an institution described by some as a basket case with very bleak prospects of survival This was the landscape that confronted the newly appointed Vice Chancellor and Chief Executive Officer CEO of the University of the Western Cape Fast forward to December 2014 The CEO retires from office bestowing upon his successor a financially sound institution with a flourishing academic project recording unprecedented achievements enriching the lives of more than 20 000 students and widely acknowledged as a research led university This book narrates how visionary leadership with the steadfast belief that your past does not determine your future galvanised an entire organisation into believing that a better outcome was indeed achievable and the will to move forward as a collective with a redefined purpose and commitment to achieve that which was once deemed impossible      Writing Centres in Higher Education Sherran Clarence, 2017-10-11 This collection of essays reflects on the ways in which writing centres in South Africa are working in and across disciplines Institutional constraints and challenges that arise from these collaborations are addressed and opportunities for transforming teaching and learning spaces are explored The chapters speak to the global move in higher education to reconsider how knowledge is made who makes it and how support and development opportunities for students and lecturers should be created and sustained across the disciplines This volume contributes to the body of knowledge in the growing field of the scholarship of teaching and learning in higher education in South Africa It builds on the work of the first collection of such essays Changing Spaces Writing Centres and Access to Higher Education Eds A Archer and R Richards 2011 SUN PReSS to understand why working within the disciplines is so critical for writing development in a South African context      A New Research Agenda for Improvements in Quality of Life Filomena Maggino, 2015-04-10 This book presents a new research agenda for improvements in Quality of Life research It includes topics such as Studying QoL in particular subpopulations and selected subgroups Disentangling the difficult task of identifying determinants of QoL Perfectionating the measurement of conceptual dimensions Defining new indicators able to measure and monitor particular social conditions and shows that these are not separated fields of studies but intersect each other and produce different outcomes which can be with difficulty classifiable consistent with the idea of the complexity of our reality The volume presents micro perspectives by taking into account the macro situation through both qualitative and quantitative approaches
