Writing Now. More Stories from Zimbabwe Irene Staunton, 2005-06-15 The sequel to the award winning Writing Still this new collection of stories paints an engaging and sometimes challenging picture of contemporary life and concerns in Zimbabwe Like its predecessor Writing Now combines well established writers Chinodya Mupfudzi Eppel Chingono with several new voices Although the stories emerge from lives of economic hardship and privation their tone is by no means uniformly Zimbabwean writers continue to demonstrate that sharp humour and surreal fantasy can grow from the bleakest of roots

Writing Still - New stories from Zimbabwe Irene Staunton, 2003-06-15 The history of Zimbabwe has always been reflected in its oral and written literature Much of the serious fiction written in the 1980s and early 1990s focused on the effects of Zimbabwe's war of liberation Little has yet been written about post independence Zimbabwe and the complex and challenging issues that have arisen in the last twenty years This anthology of twenty two short stories provides a representative sample of the range and quality of writing in Zimbabwe at the turn of the century and an impressionistic reflection of the years since independence in 1980 Included are stories by established writers Shimmer Chinodya Charles Mungoshi Brian Chikwava and some younger or less established writers Clement Chihota Wonder Guchu Chiedza Musengezi Mary Ndlovu Vivienne Ndlovu and Stanley Nyamfukudza The collection also reflects a slightly broader perspective with stories by Alexandra Fuller Derek Huggins Pat Brickhill and Chris Wilson who engage with historical memory of the conflicts out of which Zimbabwe arose and the lessons to be drawn from living within a culture other than one's own Overall the anthology reaffirms the persistent value attached to imaginative writing in Zimbabwe and illustrates that the country's literary tradition is alive and well and reshaping itself for new times

Mapping World Anglophone Studies Pavan Kumar Malreddy, Frank Schulze-Engler, 2024-10-30 This book explores core issues in the emerging field of World Anglophone Studies It shows that traditional frameworks based on the colonial and imperial legacies of English need to be revised and extended to understand the complex adaptations iterations and incarnations of English in the contemporary world The chapters in this volume make three significant interventions in the field First they showcase the emergence of Anglophone literatures and cultures in parts of the world not traditionally considered Anglophone Cuba the Arab world the Balkan region Vietnam Algeria and Belize among others Second they feature new zones of contact and creolization between Anglophone literatures cultures and languages such as Swahili Santhali Ojibway and Hindi as well as Anglophone representations of colonial encounters and contemporary experiences in non Anglophone settings such as Cuba Angola and Algeria And finally the volume turns to Anglophone literary and cultural productions on new platforms such as social media and Netflix and highlights the role of English in emergent sites of resistance involving women Indigenous populations queer and other non heteronormative sexualities as well as post conflict societies Mapping linguistic transgressions and the transmigration of cultural tropes between Englishes vernaculars and a wide variety of other languages with a rich set of case studies this volume will be essential reading for courses such as world literatures in English postcolonial studies anglophone studies literature and culture Indian Ocean worlds Global Englishes and Global South studies Mambo Book of Zimbabwean Verse in English Colin Style,O-lan Style,1986 Morris: Small Friends and other stories and poem ,2023-01-10 The short stories and poems in this collection were written by students at King George VI School and centre for physically disabled children in Zimbabwe s second city Bulawayo HIV and AIDS have had a devastating effect on all the communities of Zimbabwe and those with disabilities have not been exempt from the effects of the virus as is reflected in many of the pieces in this collection The book clearly demonstrates both the talent of the students and their concern about the issues facing their community and wider society Some of the stories and poems tell the stories of their lives some come straight from their imagination and some simply speak of their dreams for a better future Byron's Poetry Peter Cochran,2012-04-25 Byron s dubious status as a sex object and his even more dubious status as a political icon serves to disguise the fact that he is one of the greatest of all English poets with a European reputation second only to Shakespeare The fact that writers such as Goethe and Pushkin held him in the highest regard ensures that the English continue to despise him and ignore his verse as much as possible This book ignores his sexuality his politics and his iconography and concentrates on his poems Written by leading authorities such as Bernard Beatty Germaine Greer and Michael O Neill it contains essays on his verse forms and his comic rhymes as well as thematic analyses on such recurrent Byronic themes as the Sea Will o the Wisps and Love versus Knowledge In the face of many modern books which translate his verse into prose and try without success to analyse the result Byron s Poetry puts his real achievement as a creative writer back into the focus of discussion Displacement, Elimination and Replacement of Indigenous People Kangira, Jairos,Nhemachena, Artwell,2019-02-19 Colonial scholars have taken immense pleasure in portraying Africans as possessed by spirits but as lacking possession and ownership of their resources including land Erroneously deemed to be thoroughly spiritually possessed but lacking senses of material possession and ownership of resources Africans have been consistently dispossessed and displaced from the era of enslavement through colonialism to the neocolonial era Delving into the historiography of dispossession and displacement on the continent of Africa and in particular in Zimbabwe this book also tackles contemporary forms of dispossession and displacement manifesting in the ongoing transnational corporations land grabs in Africa wherein African peasants continue to be dispossessed and displaced Focusing on the topical issues around dispossession and repossession of land and the attendant displacements in contemporary Zimbabwe the book theorises displacements from a decolonial Pan Africanist perspective and it also unpacks various forms of displacements corporeal noncorporeal cognitive spiritual genealogical and linguistic displacements among others The book is an excellent read for scholars from a variety of disciplines such as Geography Sociology Social Anthropology History Linguistics Development Studies Science and technology Studies Jurisprudence and Social Theory Law and Philosophy The book also offers intellectual grit for policy makers and implementers civil society organisations including activists as well as thinkers interested in decolonisation and transformation
