Constructing "race" and "ethnicity" in America Dvora Yanow,2003 What do we mean in the U S today when we use the terms race and ethnicity What do we mean and what do we understand when we use the five standard race ethnic categories White Black Asian Native American and Hispanic Most federal and state data collection agencies use these terms without explicit attention and thereby create categories of American ethnicity for political purposes Davora Yanow argues that race and ethnicity are socially constructed concepts not objective scientifically grounded variables and do not accurately represent the real world She joins the growing critique of the unreflective use of race and ethnicity in American policymaking through an exploration of how these terms are used in everyday practices Her book is filled with current examples and analyses from a wealth of social institutions health care education criminal justice and government at all levels The questions she raises for society and public policy are endless Yanow maintains that these issues must be addressed explicitly publicly and nationally if we are to make our policy and administrative institutions operate more effectively The Politics of

African-American Education Kenneth J. Meier,Amanda Rutherford,2016-08-24 The book provides a comprehensive assessment of current African American education policy and its politics Research Report Kentucky. General Assembly. Legislative Research Commission,1960

Progress toward a Literate World Amber Gove,April Mora,Peggy McCardle,2017-04-10 In order to work toward eradicating extreme poverty and hunger the United Nations Millennium Development Goals significantly include universal primary education gender equality and empowering women Effective early literacy instruction plays a critical role in achieving these goals From around the globe this issue presents evidence based culturally sensitive and cost effective practices in reading instruction and intervention in the early grades Not only will this issue heighten awareness of the challenges faced but it will provide valuable information to help guide and improve diverse global education programs and research especially in developing regions and for children living in poverty or disadvantage in all nations Presenting several experiences from small and large scale reading improvement programs it Focuses on low and middle income countries Describes challenges in implementing studying and scaling them up Informs expectations on how quickly and easily reading performance can change and Provides results and evidence of effectiveness This is the 155th volume in this Jossey Bass series New Directions for Child and Adolescent Development Its mission is to provide scientific and scholarly presentations on cutting edge issues and concepts in this subject area Each volume focuses on a specific new direction or research topic and is edited by experts from that field
