More Women on Boards Lynne E. Devnew, Marlene Janzen Le Ber, Mariateresa Torchia, Ronald J. Burke, 2018-10-01 More Women on Boards An International Perspective is the seventh volume in the Women and Leadership Research Theory and Practice book series The purpose of this volume is to explore the complexity of issues related to increasing the number of women on boards of directors around the world how these issues have been understood how they have been more and less successfully addressed in different countries and industries and how they are similar and yet different as a results of cultural and legal differences In the Introduction and 18 chapters included in this book 42 researchers activists and practitioners who were raised or work today in at least 17 countries on 6 continents seek to answer the questions Why have women on boards Why is adding women to boards so challenging What actions increase the number of women on boards and What can we learn from situations where there are women board members In seeking to answer these questions the authors summarize previously existing research and share the results of their own recent qualitative and quantitative research studies conducted in many different countries Both fix the woman and fix the society challenges and solutions are explored Stories of women who have successfully joined and in many cases led boards of directors are shared It is clear to us and we believe will be clear to those who read this book that there is no single program that will lead to gender equality on boards however we believe that the authors in this volume provide a rich variety of research and well supported suggestions for addressing the challenges When local cultures are considered and multiple suggestions implemented as appropriate we are confident we will together increase the number of women on boards throughout the world Nominations Hearing of James E.
