This edited volume brings together original sociolinguistic and cultural contributions on food as an instrument to explore diasporic identities. Focusing on food practices in cross cultural contact, the authors reveal how they can be used as a powerful vehicle for positive intercultural exchange, either through conservation and the maintenance of cultural continuity or through hybridization and the means through which migrant communities find compromise or even consent within the host community. Each chapter presents a fascinating range of data and new perspectives on cultures and languages in contact from English and some of its varieties to Italian, German, Spanish, and to Japanese and Palauan, as well as an exemplary range of types of contact in colonial, multicultural, and diasporic situations. The authors use a range of integrated approaches to examine how socio-linguistic food practices can and do contribute to identity construction in diverse transnational and diasporic contexts. The book will be of particular interest to students and scholars of translation, semiotics, cultural studies, and sociolinguistics. Italian American Angie Rito, Scott Tacinelli, 2021-10-26. IACP AWARD FINALIST. Reimagine Italian American cooking with more than 125 recipes rich with flavor and nostalgia from the celebrated husband and wife chef team of Michelin starred Don Angie in New York City. Every bit of warmth and hospitality that you feel when you walk into Don Angie pours out of every page of this magical book. Michael Symon ONE OF THE BEST COOKBOOKS OF THE YEAR. New York Post Minneapolis Star Tribune Food52 Epicurious Taste of Home. The words red sauce alone conjure images of an Italian American table full of antipasti, both hot and cold, whisked off to make room for decadent baked pastas topped with molten cheese, all before a procession of chicken parm or pork chops, all pizzaiola, and we haven't even gotten to dessert. It's old school cooking beloved by many and imbued with a deep sense of family. In Italian American Angie Rito and Scott

Tacinelli the chefs of critically acclaimed Don Angie in New York City's West Village reinvigorate the genre with a modern point of view that proudly straddles the line between Italian and American. They present family classics passed down through generations side by side with creative spins and riffs inspired by influences both old and new. These comforting dishes feel familiar but are far from expected including their signature pinwheel lasagna ribs glazed with orange and Campari saucy shrimp parm meatballs and a cheesy bubbling gratin of broccoli rabe and sharp provolone. Full of family history and recipes that will inspire a new generation Italian American provides an essential spirited introduction to an unforgettable way of cooking. Remembering Recipes Frank Palescandolo, Momma's Christmas Cookbook Arlene
