Rebuilt Book Michael White:

Rebuilt Michael White, Tom Corcoran, 2012-02-28 Drawing on the wisdom gleaned from thriving mega churches and innovative business leaders while anchoring their vision in the Eucharistic center of Catholic faith Fr Michael White and lay associate Tom Corcoran present the compelling and inspiring story to how they brought their parish back to life Rebuilt Awakening the Faithful Reaching the Lost and Making Church Matter is a story of stopping everything and changing focus When their parish reached a breaking point White and Corcoran asked themselves how they could make the Church matter to Catholics and they realized the answer was at the heart of the Gospel Their faithful response not only tripled their weekend mass attendance but also yielded increased giving flourishing ministries and a vibrant solidly Catholic spiritual revival White and Corcoran invite all Catholic leaders to share the vision borrow their strategies and rebuild their own parishes They offer a wealth of guidance for anyone with the courage to hear them A Way with Words Adam T. Trambly, 2020-04-17 A vital resource for pastors who seek to transform the culture of their church A Way with Words demonstrates the power of the weekly sermon to change the culture of a congregation Using the analogy of language learning Adam Trambly shows how a consistent ministry focus over an eighteen month period can help a church address areas that inhibit growth even as the pastor preaches on a diversity of subjects or uses a lectionary The author explores how important focused preaching can be to moving church development forward and offers a long term strategy particularly helpful for pastors looking to take full advantage of the opportunities their weekly sermons provide Each chapter includes discussion questions and practical exercises that can be used as part of a preaching group or seminary class or to aid the solo pastor in preparing dynamic sermons This is a topic not generally taught in seminary but vital for pastors who wear many hats as preachers pastoral caregivers and administrative leaders Rebuilt Faith Michael White, Tom Corcoran, 2023-09-22 Winner of a honorable mention award in the popular presentation of the Catholic faith category from the Catholic Media Association Do you question whether God really exists Have you considered walking away from your faith because you've been hurt by someone in the Church or because you struggle with some of its teachings Or maybe you've already left Are you carrying around guilt for something you've done and don't feel you are worthy of God's love Rebuilt Faith written by Fr Michael White and Tom Corcoran authors of the bestselling book Rebuilt proposes five simple steps to learn or relearn more about your Catholic faith and deepen your relationship with God In Rebuilt Faith you will learn that rebuilding and renewing your faith starts with a nagging feeling that you want something more more connectedness more community and more purpose That's the spark that leads to a flame that burns brightly around Jesus the foundation of living and growing in faith The steps in Rebuilt Faith can be done in just ten minutes a day over forty days during your morning coffee at lunchtime or when you are relaxing in the evening Each one includes a quotation from a saint a reflection questions to ponder a prayer and a scripture verse White and Corcoran organize the book around five steps that build on different aspects of Catholicism and are meant to be repeated serve serve others and develop a servant s heart give giving reflects the character of God engage in Christian community we need friends of faith to become more like Jesus practice prayer and the sacraments by praying consistently and continually taking part in the sacraments you will better connect with God and share your faith having a heart for people who do not know Jesus and helping them in their faith journey will strengthen your own faith White and Corcoran have watched thousands of people in their parish in Timonium Maryland take these five steps and grow from seeing God primarily as an abstract idea into knowing him as a deeply loved partner who provides a far greater sense of purpose for living than they had ever known before Invest in yourself by taking your faith to the next level and allowing God to help you come to know his grace favor and loving kindness in a new and personal way Not only will you strengthen your own connection to God but also the connection between him and the entire Body of Christ

Seriously, God? Michael White, Tom Corcoran, 2021-10-08 Winner of a third place award in the grief and bereavement category from the Catholic Media Association A friend s child dies a parent gets a cancer diagnosis your spouse loses their job Sometimes life and God s plan don t make sense and we end up feeling hurt and angry In Seriously God Fr Michael White and Tom Corcoran explore the denial doubt and betrayal we experience when we face hardship pain and grief and they encourage us to lean into our feelings and to take each circumstance as a chance to learn more about God Drawing on personal anecdotes and stories from their parish White and Corcoran authors of the bestselling and award winning book Rebuilt share important lessons including Even the heroes of the Bible such as Abraham Moses David and the apostles experienced situations that caused them to misunderstand God There is joy in knowing we will forever be getting to know God Even though life often doesn t make sense we shouldn t assume God doesn t make sense For anyone who has battled suffering walked away from faith under the pressure of crushing doubt never felt safe giving faith a chance or cared about someone who struggles with these realities this book treats the problems of suffering and evil not as an argument to be overcome but as an invitation to a deeper faith Each chapter relies on biblical stories that provide a wonderful introduction to scripture to those who are not familiar with the Bible and a fresh perspective to those who are Each chapter also includes questions for self reflection and discussion A free parish small group guide and videos from the authors are available online This is a perfect book to give as a gift to friends or family members who are grieving those struggling with doubts about their faith or those who are new to faith

Theology of the Parish, A Clark, William A., 2022 A Theology of the Parish answers skepticism about the pastoral role of theology by presenting a case for Theology of the People as an important tool for empowering whole communities at the local level of the Church

Preaching for Discipleship Michael E. Connors, 2021-01-25 The homily is a primary way that pastors and deacons can communicate how the whole parish community forms the catechumens Many parishioners are not aware of their role in the Christian initiation process In Preaching Discipleship Preparing Homilies for Christian Initiation Michael E Connors CSC provides homilists and catechists with the tools to evangelize not only the catechumens present but also to capture the imagination of the parish community so that they too realize their own role in the Christian initiation process This resource will help the homilist Build a homily Foster a deeper appreciation of the call to discipleship on the part of the assembly Instruct the assembly on their role in the Rite of Christian Initiation so that right from the outset the catechumens may feel that they belong to the people of God Bring the baptized and catechumens into a deeper personal relationship with the Lord Provide specific insights during the period of Mystagogy      ChurchMoney Michael White,Tom Corcoran,2019-09-13 There is a secret formula to help convince parishioners to give financially to your church It s pretty simple Just ask them And when you do make sure it s not about the money In ChurchMoney Rev Michael White and Tom Corcoran award winning authors of the bestselling book Rebuilt will help you learn the basic skills you need to discover that true success in raising funds comes from the incredibly freeing approach that connects giving to discipleship The two share stories of success and failure during their twenty years leading the Church of the Nativity in Timonium Maryland They tell you what they learned to meet the real financial challenges of their mission And they offer the practical wisdom and inspiration you need to tackle the thorny matter of raising money in your Catholic parish So if giving isn t about the money what is it about Giving is about loving God and serving him loving others and helping them fall in love with their Savior transforming the world little by little through love and the eternal impact we can and need to make with money White and Corcoran contend that giving actually glorifies God and attracts others to the Church Over and over again in scripture they point out you ll find the same simple point Giving gladly serves as a key ingredient to the Church s growth from its very beginning White and Corcoran share the lessons facts habits and great ideas they ve implemented from some of the most successful and vibrant churches in the United States ChurchMoney offers a proven plan for raising money in parishes It s readily adaptable firmly rooted in the reality of leading a Catholic parish based on the Bible and finessed with the best advice of communication professionals You will read stories of embarrassing failure and exhilarating success in tripling a budget and running three extraordinarily successful capital campaigns over a ten year period including a recent campaign leading to the construction of 16 million sanctuary built debt free White and Corcoran have increased staff fourfold and significantly raised salaries and increased staff benefits while expanding mission outreach both locally and internationally      The Rebuilt Field Guide Michael White,Tom Corcoran,2016-10-10 You know your Catholic parish needs to change its focus but you re not sure where or how to begin In The Rebuilt Field Guide award winning authors Rev Michael White and Tom Corcoran walk you through ten essential steps for getting started with your church s reawakening After publishing their groundbreaking book Rebuilt in 2013 about the rebirth of the Church of the Nativity in Timonium Maryland Fr Michael White and Tom Corcoran were inundated with requests for help from other Catholic parishes about where to start Subsequent books in the Rebuilt Parish series Tools for Rebuilding Rebuilding Youth Ministry and Rebuilding Your Message offer additional means to reach the end goal of making church matter and growing disciples by challenging the faithful and reaching the lost with the life changing message of Jesus Christ In the newest book in the Rebuilt Parish series White and Corcoran lead you and your leadership team through assessment and goal setting exercises and provide meeting templates that include prayer scripture reflection storytelling and rally cries that become reminders of the change the team is striving toward This workbook offers practical steps that will help your team set change in motion with tools including A checklist that helps identify the real problems facing your parish and seven questions to help you prioritize them A seven part exercise to help you decide which parish activities do not support your disciple making mission and then make a plan to stop doing them A simple focused demographic assessment to help you identify your own Timonium Tim A discussion and planning guide for moving toward great liturgical music Seven conversation starters to help your team set a course for dealing with the conflict that inevitably comes with change The exercises are adapted from those used at Church of the Nativity and correlate to the chapters of Rebuilt The book will show you how to stop everything you are doing rethink your purpose and focus your attention on discipleship and evangelization

All the Beautiful Things Beth Doherty, 2020-03-01 Taking as its theme beauty from ashes the beautiful image from Isaiah 61:3 All the Beautiful Things Finding Truth Beauty and Goodness in a Fractured Church is written at a time when the Catholic Church and its people are reeling from years of scandal This book asks questions throughout and attempts to answer them based on the author's lived experience but it also engages a wide range of conversation partners These answers are the result of interviews surveys and conversations with people who love the Church but seek reform and renewal It is a cri de coeur a cry of the heart to try to reclaim what has been lost It is a taking up of a cross and walking on a journey paved with all manner of challenge In the end the author's hope is to help others to rediscover the truth beauty and goodness that still exist within Catholicism

Divine Renovation Apprentice Fr. Simon Lobo, 2017-02-01 Transforming a parish is challenging demanding and sometimes messy work Divine Renovation Apprentice Fr Simon Lobo breaks open his experience as an associate pastor working on the renewal of St Benedict Parish in Halifax Nova Scotia the birthplace of Divine Renovation With honesty humility and great clarity Fr Simon offers his personal reflections on the actual process of renovation with practical wisdom critical to anyone who wants to see their parish experience new life More than simply a biographical account of the change at St Benedict this book contains insights on how to Change Culture Build a Game Plan and Develop Leaders for lasting parish change

Tools for Rebuilding Michael White, Tom Corcoran, 2013-11-25 Fr Michael White and Tom Corcoran know that the fundamental work of the Church is to evangelize to introduce people to Christ and make them disciples Still they're the first to admit the difficulty comes when we reach down into the details and get to work In their barn burning first book Rebuilt White and Corcoran shared their story and vision of building better Catholic parishes Now in their eagerly anticipated second book Tools for Rebuilding they lay out seventy five proven tactics for getting the job done In Tools for Rebuilding 75 Really Really Practical Ways to Make Your Parish Better White and Corcoran share seventy five foundational tactics that helped to rejuvenate their parish Their candid hands on advice gives a clear way forward one that will make church matter to the people in the pews and that anyone working in parish ministry can implement Principles tactics include Get the Right People on the Bus Christmas Is Over So Throw Out the Dead Poinsettias Stop Advertising Other People s Stuff in Your Bulletin Don t Let the Insiders Take All the Good Seats Just Because It s Slow Doesn t Mean It s Holy When It Comes to First Communion Just Surrender Funerals Are Scud Missiles Preach the Announcements Start Getting Rid of Fundraisers Everything Takes Longer Than You Think Pastor It s Not All About You Stop Trying to Make People Go to Church and Make Church Matter      A Seminarian's Toolbox

Patrick Stokely,2024-02-15 With the ever increasing demands placed on our parish leaders what can seminaries do to prepare priests to deal with the difficult issues they will face In addition to formation in priestly spirituality and pastoral care future pastors require lasting support as they discern the call to priesthood and prepare to enter parish leadership after ordination Filled with valuable information for supporting seminarians in their ongoing formation A Seminarian s Toolbox provides practical tools and guidance for achieving best practices in parish leadership This book is a project of The Leadership Roundtable a nonprofit organization of Catholic lay leaders religious and clergy working together to promote best practices in the formation of clergy and lay leaders in the United States Learn more at www.LeadershipRoundtable.org

The Truth Will Make You Free Robert F. Leavitt,2019-02-07 2020 Association of Catholic Publishers first place award in theology The available literature on the new evangelization is wide ranging and focused on issues of ecclesial renewal In The Truth Will Make You Free Fr Robert Leavitt adopts a different approach to the subject From Paul VI until Pope Francis the nature and challenges of modern secularism have become a recurring factor in the agenda of the new evangelization yet often without historical perspective and philosophical balance Few popular works bother to examine in such depth and scope as this book does what the history nature and implications of the secular age are for revitalizing ministry in an age of optional belief Written for the interested layperson seminarian theology student and pastor The Truth Will Make You Free is an indispensable catechism for rethinking our understanding of the secular world in proclaiming the Gospel of Christ      What

We Have Seen and Heard Michael E. Connors,2017-05-11 One of the chief challenges of the Second Vatican Council was to reclaim the meaning of baptism especially as the foundation of service and mission in the world Fifty years after the close of that watershed gathering nineteen distinguished religious leaders and scholars reexamine that challenge and its implications for preaching and ministry today This book reinvigorates an important conversation      Saint John Henry Newman Robert C. Christie,2020-01-17 This volume of essays sponsored by the Newman Association of America serves to identify preserve and promote the legacy of John Henry Newman It argues that eleven major elements of Newman s life and work speak to us today and in fact are very important resources for believers in their confrontation with the challenges of an increasingly secular world They also resonate loudly to a church in crisis both internally and externally in its confrontation with that world Ten authors included among them some of the world s most noted Newman scholars as well as several emerging ones address various aspects of Newman's legacy on a host of subjects. These include the nature and challenges of faith both for believers and contemporaries with no religious affiliations; an analysis of what and how we know things, particularly bearing on religious matters; the experience of conversions; the place and meaning of relationships in our search for God; especially those of family, home and friendships; the indispensable role of the church in our drive for holiness; the nature and importance of education and its personal dimension; and the correct application of history in studying and learning from Newman's legacy. Those who have questions and who think about these subjects, academics and non academics alike, will find much to ponder in these essays.

New Atlantis John Swenson, 2010-09-01. At its most intimate level, music heals our emotional wounds and inspires us. At its most public, it unites people across cultural boundaries. But can it rebuild a city? That is the central question posed in New Atlantis, journalist John Swenson's beautifully detailed account of the musical artists working to save America's most colorful and troubled metropolis, New Orleans. The city has been threatened with extinction many times during its three hundred plus year history by fire, pestilence, crime, flood and oil spills. Working for little money and in spite of having lost their own homes and possessions to Katrina, New Orleans's most gifted musicians, including such figures as Dr. John, the Neville Brothers, Trombone Shorty and Big Chief Monk Boudreaux, are fighting back against a tidal wave of problems: the depletion of the wetlands south of the city which are disappearing at the rate of one acre every hour; the violence that has made New Orleans the murder capital of the U.S.; the waning tourism industry; and above all, the continuing calamity in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. Or as it is known in New Orleans, the Federal Flood. Indeed, most of the neighborhoods that nurtured the indigenous music of New Orleans were destroyed in the flood, and many of the elder statesmen have died or been incapacitated since then, but the musicians profiled here have stepped up to fill their roles. New Atlantis is their story. Packed with indelible portraits of individual artists, informed by Swenson's encyclopedic knowledge of the city's unique and varied music scene which includes jazz, R & B, brass band, rock and hip hop, New Atlantis is a stirring chronicle of the valiant efforts to preserve the culture that gives New Orleans its grace and magic.

New Orleans Suite Lewis Watts, Eric Porter, 2013-02-07. With New Orleans Suite, Eric Porter and Lewis Watts join the post-Katrina conversation about New Orleans and its changing cultural scene. Using both visual evidence and the written word, Watts and Porter pay homage to the city, its region and its residents by mapping recent and often contradictory social and cultural transformations and seeking to counter inadequate and often pejorative accounts of the people and place that give New Orleans its soul. Focusing for the most part on the city's African American community, New Orleans Suite is a story about people, how bad things have happened to them in the long and short run, how they have persevered by drawing upon and transforming their cultural practices, and what they can teach us about citizenship, politics and society.

The Right Questions for Church Leaders Lovett H. Weems Jr., 2025-04-15. Creativity and innovation in your ministry begin with asking the right questions. Unlock the power of wise questioning with this essential guide for church leaders. Esteemed advisor Lovett H. Weems Jr.
