Features information on studying at Postgraduate level in the UK what is involved what opportunities there are lists details 75 million of funding available to Postgraduate students      Winning Research Funding Dr Abby Day, 2012-10-01 The ability to produce valid research has never been more crucial to the academic community than it is today but how do you go about getting the funding for such projects How do you identify which funding organisations are likely to be sympathetic to your needs and convince them that they will benefit from funding you Abby Day Peters guides you step by step through the process of focusing your research and identifying your funding partner to provide the very best chance of success But perhaps more importantly she also goes on to explain how to build and maintain a relationship with the partner thereby assisting future research In addition the book gives advice on writing and successful publication following completion of the research project The text is extremely lively and enjoyable to read with many valuable insights from both sides of the funding process and features real life case studies and interviews throughout      University Audit Cultures and Feminist Praxis Órla Meadhbh Murray, 2025-04-23 Being REF able The impact agenda The student experience University audit culture has infiltrated academic life but how should we respond Drawing on a five year Institutional Ethnography of UK universities the author provides a feminist take on the neoliberal university and abolitionist reflections on audit culture For feminist and other critical academics the interpretative power involved in audit processes provides an opportunity to collectively challenge and subvert re read and re write institutions This book challenges the myths and misinterpretations around how academic audit processes work arguing that if we are complicit then we have agency to do them differently      ESRC
