Sex, Love, and Romance in the Mass Media Mary-Lou

Galician,2004-07-16 This accessible yet research based text offers both foundational theories and practical applications of analysis and criticism of mass media portrayals of sex love and romance in a wide variety of mass media from entertainment to advertising to news The multidisciplinary methodological perspective comes out of a media literacy approach and embraces a variety of traditions along the quantitative qualitative continuum Focused on portrayals of male female coupleship the book is centered around the 12 major myths and stereotypes of Galician s Dr FUN s Mass Media Love Quiz each of which has a corresponding Dr Galician Prescription that encapsulates healthy strategies rarely found in the mass media to counteract that myth or stereotype Readers learn how to identify illustrate deconstruct evaluate and reframe the mass media s mythic and stereotypic portrayals of sex love and romance They also learn how to use their own formal critical evaluations to clarify their own values and as media consumers or mass communication creators to share their insights with others Thus the learning objectives encompass all three major educational domains cognitive affective and behavioral Part I of this book covers the five foundations myths and stereotypes of love and coupleship models of realistic and constructive love and coupleship mass media storytelling approaches techniques and devices research and theories of mass media effects and strategies and skills of media literacy Part II is devoted to exploring the myths and stereotypes identified in the Quiz

Following several brief case studies and a summary of related research and commentary each chapter focuses on analyses and criticisms of portrayals of sex love and romance in the content of news and advertising as well as entertainment using Galician's Seven Step Disillusioning Directions Each chapter concludes with a Disillusion Digest While critical of unrealistic portrayals and the damage they can cause unsuspecting media consumers Galician a media literacy advocate is not anti media Rather her goal is to empower consumers to use these portrayals with more awareness of their possible consequences to resist adopting them as models for actual behavior and to consciously reframe them into more realistic productive scenarios This unique text is an engaging classroom resource for media literacy media and relationships and media and society coursework
