Sustainable Transformation in African Higher Education Felix Maringe, Emmanuel Ojo, 2017-04-18 The book is a must read for policy makers academics university administrators and post graduate research students in the broad field of education and in higher education studies in particular The book brings together a wealth of information regarding the imperatives of transformation in Africa s higher education systems Not only do some of the chapters provide critical discussion about the conceptualisation of transformation the majority of the chapters reflect on empirical evidence for transformation in diverse fields of mathematics science gender the training of doctoral students and the governance and management of universities This central theme of sustainable change and reform runs across the chapters of the book For students the book provides exemplars of practical research in higher education For scholars in higher education and policy makers specific issues for reform are identified and discussed Education as the Driving Force of Equity for the Marginalized Boivin, Jacquelynne Anne, Pacheco-Guffrey, Heather, 2022-01-14 In the USA racism is the most widespread root of oppression Black people in America specifically have suffered from centuries of discrimination and still struggle to receive the same privileges as their white peers In other countries however there are other groups that face similar struggles Discrimination and oppression based on religion ethnicity socio economic status political affiliation and caste are just a few categories However education is a root for widespread societal change making it essential that educators and systems of education enact the changes that need to occur to achieve equity for the groups being oppressed Education as the Driving Force of Equity for the Marginalized highlights international research from the past decade about the role education is playing in the disruption and dismantling of perpetuated systems of oppression This research presents the context ideas and mechanics behind impactful efforts to dismantle systems of oppression Covering topics such as teacher preparation gender inequality and social justice this work is essential for teachers policymakers college students education faculty researchers administrators professors and academicians Comparative Legal Metrics , 2023-08-28 The trend of measuring performances is global and pervasive We all live in quantified societies in which performances in an ever growing array of fields from education to health work to credit justice to consumption are assessed and governed through quantitative techniques While the disruption brought by the quantitative turn has been widely studied by social scientists legal research on the issue is minimal This book aims to fill the gap The essays herein collected explore how performance measurements interact with the law in different regions and sectors which legal effects they produce and for whose benefit Going to University Case, Jennifer, Marshall, Delia, 2018-02-09 Around the world more young people than ever before are attending university Student numbers in South Africa have doubled since democracy and for many families higher education is a route to a better future for their children But alongside the overwhelming demand for higher education questions about its purposes have intensified Deliberations about the curriculum culture and costing of public higher education abound from student activists academics parents civil society and policy makers We know from macro research that South African graduates generally have good employment prospects But little is known at a detailed level about how young people actually make use of their university experiences to craft their life courses And even less is known about what happens to those who drop out This accessible book brings together the rich life stories of 73 young people six years after they began their university studies It traces how going to university influences not only their employment options but also nurtures the agency needed to chart their own way and to engage critically with the world around them The book offers deep insights into the ways in which public higher education is both a private and public good and it provides significant conclusions pertinent to anyone who works in and cares about universities      Proceedings New York (State). Proceedings of the ... Convocation University of the State of New York,1891      The Language Issue in the Teaching of Mathematics in South Africa Lindiwe Tshuma,2021-01-26 The book is the result of a five year project that culminated within the first three years in doctoral research interrogating language competency for meaningful mathematics instruction at upper primary level conducted at University of Stellenbosch in 2017 and this book in the succeeding two years The initial research project received countrywide coverage in several South African media outlets including Times Live and Radio 2000      Environmental Ethics Bob Jickling,Heila Lotz-Sisitka,Lausanne Olvitt,Rob O'Donoghue,Ingrid Schudel,Dylan McGarry,Blair Niblett,2021-12-07 This well constructed and highly original sourcebook integrates educational materials for teaching environmental ethics with theoretical reflections The book is set to contribute immensely to its aim of taking ethics out of philosophy departments and putting it into the streets into villages and on the Earth to make ethics an everyday activity not something left to experts and specialists Context based activities are presented in almost every chapter While it acknowledges foundational theories in environmental ethics and the work that they continue to do it wholeheartedly embraces a growing body of literature that emphasises contextual process oriented and place based approaches to ethical reflection deliberation and action It walks on the ground and isn t afraid to get a little dirty or to seek joy in earthly relationships And it ultimately breaks with much Western academic tradition by framing ethics in a storied world thus making room to move beyond Euro American perspectives in environmental issues This work will be of interest to school teachers and other non formal and informal educators teacher educators college instructors university professors and other professionals who wish to bring environmental ethics to the forefront of their pedagogical practices      Special Admission Kirsten Hextrum,2021-08-13 Special Admission contradicts the national belief that college sports provide an avenue for upward mobility Kirsten Hextrum reveals the dynamic relationship between the state elite groups private entities educational institutions and athletic organizations that concentrate opportunities in white suburban communities Thus college sports allow white middle class athletes to accelerate their advantages through admission to elite universities      Serving Higher Purposes Ihron Rensburg,2020-11-05 Universities of the 21st century and beyond must be about teaching learning research

Violent Ignorance Hannah Jones,2021-01-28 An elected politician is assassinated in the street by a terrorist associated with extreme political groups and the national response is to encourage picnics Thousands of people are held in prison like conditions without judicial oversight or any time limit on their sentence An attempt to re assert national sovereignty and borders leads thousands of citizens to register for dual citizenship with other countries some overcoming family associations with genocide in their second country of nationality to do so This is life in the UK today How then are things still continuing as normal How can we confront these phenomena and why do we so often refuse to What are the practices that help us to accommodate the unconscionable How might we contend with the horrors that meet us each day rather than becoming desensitized to them Violent Ignorance sets out to examine these questions through an understanding of how the past persists in the present how trauma is silenced or reappears and how we might reimagine identity and connection in ways that counter rather than ignore historic violence In particular Hannah Jones shows how border controls and enforcement and its corollary racism and violence have shifted over time Drawing on thinkers from John Berger to Ben Okri from Audre Lorde to Susan Sontag the book questions what it means to belong and discusses how hierarchies of belonging are revealed by what we can see and what we can ignore
