The Girl With All The Gifts English Edition:

Nowhere Allison Gunn, 2025-03-25 Mare of Easttown meets The Outsider in this spine tingling and twisty debut about a series of disappearances in a small fundamentalist town and what one broken family must do to remain together as dark forces close in After losing her young son in an accident Rachel Kennan throws herself into her career as police chief of a small Virginia town to avoid focusing on her grief Meanwhile her husband Finn a washed up writer whose alcoholism led to the devastating tragedy that changed everything struggles to redeem himself before his family completely falls apart Their two daughters are the only things keeping Rachel and Finn together but the girls have demons of their own At the same time a disturbing crime rocks their tightknit religious community sending Rachel chasing leads in a place that does not take kindly to outsiders When an ominous force in the forest starts calling to the children fear spawns hate among the townspeople placing the Kennan family directly in the line of fire Left with no choice but to rely on each other Rachel and Finn must come together to face threats inside and out A haunting family saga and a disquieting horror debut Nowhere draws from Appalachian folklore to caution us that true terror is what we bury in our own hearts

The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1870 Literary News ,1882 Whispers in the Dark Allison Gunn, 2025-08-28 Don't go into the dark woods where the trees grow dense and the sunlight struggles to reach the underbrush Rachel Kennan knows the townspeople of Dahlmouth will never accept her as police chief She's an outsider she isn't part of the history of this tightknit superstitious community in Virginia She's faced the same hostility every day for three years but she couldn't care less because her son is dead And it was her husband Finn and his drinking that caused the accident Rachel can barely look at Finn despite all the pain she sees in him Their family is falling apart Their two daughters are the only things keeping Rachel and Finn together but the girls have demons of their own Then one day Rachel is called out to a horrifying scene in the woods A man has been nailed to a tree Whatever happened to him is like nothing she's encountered before And now little Abby Grayson is missing Rachel searches frantically but before long more of Dahlmouth's children disappear And soon the locals' wariness turns to fear and contempt and Rachel and Finn must rely on each other if they have any hope of getting what's left of their family through this Whispers in the Dark is a haunting debut horror and a disquieting exploration of grief Appalachian folklore and the quiet terror of domesticity Readers are obsessed This was SO creepy Eerie with horrific imagery an absolute masterpiece in edge of your intensity This would be an absolutely incredible film I cannot wait for another book by this author it was hard to believe this was a debut novel Reader review five stars Her writing reminds me of Stephen King one moment and Shirley Jackson the next The final scene still haunts me If you are a lover of horror Whispers in the Dark is for you Reader review five stars Completely terrifying and you can't look away even when you want to Reader review five stars I've got chills Holy freaking crap Once I reached the end I felt like I needed to just sit and take a few calming breaths Reader review five stars A creepy atmospheric supernatural horror novel debut that you
