Humans haven't a clue about what we're capable of. If Push came to shove what would you do? Would you fold? Would you go all in? Kamryn lives 24/7 with psychological stress constantly on alert. The fight/flight/freezing response isn't a conscious decision. It's instinctual and our body's natural reaction to danger. The reaction starts in our amygdala which plays a prominent role in us mediating our vast array of human emotions ranging from ultimate happiness to unadulterated fear/panic and terror. Kam is cornered either she comes out fighting or shrinks from relevancy. Kamryn will fight until she breathes no longer. Dark clouds have hung low over Kamryn's Family Tree for centuries. It's challenging to change the inner nature of instinctual tendencies. Yes especially when you're pushed into a corner you either fight or concede and kowtow or you can play the conniving strategy to pounce when you feel the time is correct For the most part people aren't pushed to the breaking point although if a dissociative disorder is prevalent in a person's genetics Umh If Insanity is just on the outer fringes of your partitioned mind only compartmentalized until called upon always raring to be unleashed then what Survival is our number one coalesced instinct impulsively we can be visited by strange Bed Partners We have so many personalities within our skulls who are you Kamryn's destiny is still opaque Ugh but clarity is empowering

Interrogating the Visual Culture of Trumpism Grant Hamming, Natalie E. Phillips, 2024-08-26 Bringing together scholars from art history visual studies and related disciplines this edited volume asks why Trumpism looks the way it does and what that look means for American and global society Grouped into six categories the essays in this volume tackle some of the most perplexing and urgent aspects of the Trumpist visual project Two of the most striking aspects of that project are its use of novel commodity forms including the iconic red baseball caps as well as its embrace of social media Trump's outlandish persona and striking physicality have lent themselves to caricature both from his critics and perhaps more surprisingly his supporters That physicality as well as his movement's hearkening back to a mostly imagined era of mid twentieth century prosperity has also brought gender and the body into sharp focus Perhaps second only to the aforementioned red hat is Trumpism's vigorous use of interventions into public space including traditional campaign signs as well as flags and other ad hoc visual and architectural materials Finally there were the events of January 6 2021 when many of Trumpism's most outré visual and cultural preoccupations exploded from the shadows onto television screens across the country Taken as a whole the essays in this book examine Trumpist visuality from the seemingly trivial to the starkly horrifying as well as offering a measured sense of the various resistances and responses that have characterized artistic responses to Trump from the beginning of his prominence The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual culture American studies and cultural and media studies
